About 300 Negroes were in integrated classrooms in 20 public and 36 parochial schools, the crowds dwindling, the bomb threats and the pickets diminishing.

Shots at Dawn

The shots were fired at the St. Rosalie Elementary School, across the Mississippi River from New Orleans, apparently from a passing car in the grey light of dawn Friday. No one was hurt and authorities had no clues.

Unexpectedly, one parochial school closed. The parish priest said that "nobody showed up" at "Our Lady of Good Harbor at Buras, some 80 miles south of New Orleans. Five Negroes enrolled on opening day last week but haven't been back since.

The 71-year-old Leander Perez Sr., Louisiana segregationist leader, watched the week's developments and then predicted that Negroes will push the white people out of New Orleans in 10 years.

Public school desegregation spread in Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia and in the North as well, although there were some unusual developments there.

No Integration

Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina remained the only states with no integration at the public school level. Attempts to lower classroom racial barriers failed in a number of cities, including Albany, Ga., scene of mass anti-

Dr. Soblen Remains in Deep Coma

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert A. Soblen remained dangerously ill in a drug-induced coma today, but doctors reported some signs of improvement.

A medical spokesman said even if the 61-year-old fugitive spy regained consciousness immediately, he could not be moved for at least 48 hours.

A hospital bulletin said:

"Although Dr. Soblem remains unconscious he has shown signs that his coma is becoming less.

"His cardiac condition has improved in the last 24 hours."

Doctors reported Friday that the 62-year old leukemia victim's heart showed signs of exhaustion and added that the situation "gives rise to anxiety."

Soblen's wife spent five hours at the runaway spy's bedside Friday. She watched in the small, closely guarded room as her husband was given oxygen and fed liquids through a tube.

She sometimes wept during her vigil, and was reported to have said: "I can only pray all the time that my husband will live through this terrible ordeal."

Officials, who still have not discovered how Soblen got the drugs used in his latest bid to escape a life prison sentence in the United States for spying for the Soviet Union, were guarding against any new breakdown in security.

Laird Says '32nd' Won't Be Called

BY FRANCES MCKUSICK
Post-Crescent Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Wisconsin's 32nd National Guard Division will not be involved if President Kennedy's request is granted for congressional authority to call up 150,000 additional Reservists and Guardsmen in case a defense crisis develops in the near future, Rep. Melvin R. Laird, Marshfield Republican, reported today.

The Wisconsin congressman made this statement following a "briefing" given by Pentagon officials to the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee of which he is a member, on the current world situation.

Laird said he specifically asked the Defense Department officials if Wisconsin's 32nd would be called up in the case of an emergency in Cuba, or any other "sensitive" part of the world, and was assured that it would not be.

No Such Plans

"These officials said they positively had no plans to include our Red Arrow Division, or any members of our state's organized reserves who served in Berlin in the President's possible call-up of 50,000 personnel," Laird said flatly.

Although the Appropriations sub-committee briefing was held behind closed doors, the congressmen felt that the members of the 32nd Division, who have just returned to their homes and jobs should be informed that there are no plans now to put them back in uniform.

The President's request for additional authority on a military call-up has the expiration date of Feb. 28, 1963, Laird said, because Mr. Kennedy said by that time Congress would be back in Washington and could then re-examine the need for additional military personnel.

In the meantime, many congressmen privately are wondering exactly what is behind the President's request for additional authority to call up the Reserves and the National Guard, since under existing law he already has the authority to do just that, in case of an emergency.

If this mystery was solved in Laird's subcommittee meeting Friday afternoon with Pentagon officials, he did not mention it.

Hurley Woman Indicted for White Slavery

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Lois Gasbarri, 49, operator of a Hurley, Wis., night club, appeared in U. S. District Court Friday on a white slavery charge. She was ordered held on bond of $10,000.

The woman and Lawrence O'Brien, 25, Minneapolis, were indicted on similar charges by a federal grand jury Thursday. One indictment against the woman alleges she transported a woman by bus from Minneapolis to Hurley on June 11 for purposes of prostitution. Another charged she aided O'Brien in transporting the same woman by car between the two cities May 22 for immoral acts.

O'Brien asked that the court appoint an attorney for him. His case was continued until next Wednesday.

Rep. Charles Halleck, R-Ind., and Sen. Berlin Situation, Cuban Developments Reasons Kennedy Wants Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders predict speedy approval of President Kennedy's request for stand-by power to call 150,000 military reservists to active duty if necessary to deal with a new East-West crisis.

Primary concern in high official quarters here centers on the possibility of new Soviet moves in Berlin. But officials recognize that Kennedy's request may also be regarded in Moscow and Havana as a go-slow warning for the military build-up in Cuba.

The President sent his request to Congress Friday without any prior public hints of such action, although the White House said the plan was discussed with Republican and Democratic congressional leaders when they met with the President Tuesday for a fill-in on Cuba.

This tie-in with Cuba quickly created speculation that Kennedy and his top advisers may be more worried than they have appeared to be about the recent substantial deliveries of Soviet arms to the Castro regime.

Stand-by Power

Well informed officials said this was not the case, although they said Kennedy would like to have the stand-by power in the event of unexpected developments in the Cuban situation.

The more serious problem and the far greater danger, according to these informants, lies in Berlin, where there has been a steady build-up of East-West tensions. In recent months, Soviet Premier Khrushchev has made repeated threats to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany, claiming this would give the East German regime power over Western access to West Berlin.

American officials are by no means certain what Khrushchev will do in the next few months while Congress is out of session. Nor are they clear on what steps the Communists may take with respect to West Berlin if a peace treaty is signed soon.

But Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara reportedly agreed that it would be important for the President to have additional resources of military authority.

The new authority would run from the time Congress adjourns, now expected some time next month, until next Feb. 28, which would be about two months after the next session begins.

Senate Okays Self-Employed Pension Plan

Disputed Bill Passes Senate, but Veto Is Possible

WASHINGTON (AP)—The long-disputed bill to give self-employed persons the right to set up tax-deductible private pension funds has cleared the Senate at last. But its eventual fate is unclear.

The Senate passed the measure Friday by an overwhelming 75-4 vote after attaching several far-reaching amendments.

It now goes to conference with the House, which last year passed a version much more generous to doctors, lawyers and other self-employed.

What will happen to the Senate changes in conference is uncertain. Even if a satisfactory compromise is worked out there remains the possibility that President Kennedy will veto it.

The bill got through the Senate Friday for the first time. The House has passed such legislation three times in the last dozen years.

Sponsors said that 7 million self-employed persons and their 11 million employes all could benefit from the measure.

Under the House version, a self-employed individual could put up to $2,500 a year into a tax-deductible pension fund. The Senate measure would cut this in half.

The House bill would cost the Treasury an estimated $365 million a year. The effect of all the Senate changes was to reduce the net loss to about $35 million.

Tot Dies After Being Hit by Car Friday, Would Have Been 2 Today

Robert King Jr. 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, 532 N. State St., Appleton, who was to celebrate his second birthday today, died early this morning from injuries received when he was struck by a car on N. State Street Friday.

A rural Kaukauna youth, William F. Liebergen, 19, died Friday when his car went out of control and crashed into a telephone pole on a county trunk near Holland in Brown County.

The deaths brought the total of state traffic deaths to 617, compared with 597 on this date one year ago. The boy's death was the 17th in Outagamie County and the second on Appleton streets since January.

Car Out of Control

The child was struck about 25 feet from the curb in the 500 block of N. State Street by a car driven by Roger W. Hoffman, 23, a rural Gresham man who is living at 615½ N. State St. Hoffman was driving north on State Street at 5 p.m. when the child suddenly appeared in front of him, he told police.

Coroner Bernard H. Kemps said multiple skull fractures and a dislocated neck caused death.

Police said the car was travel-

Airline Files Suit Against $125,000 Claim

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A Chicago insurance company has asked that it not be required to pay a $125,000 claim arising from an airliner crash which killed 45 persons.

The Continental Casualty Co. filed a suit in U.S. District Court on Friday against the widow of Thomas G. Doty of Merriam, Kan.

Doty, 34, was a passenger on the Continental Air Lines jet that blew up over the Missouri-Iowa border near Denterville, Iowa, on May 22. The Civil Aeronautics Board said dynamite ignited in a washroom caused the crash.

The petition alleges that because Doty's death was caused by suicide or self-destruction, the insurance company should be relieved of liability.

'Adventures of Nils'

King Does 'Walk-On' In Fairy Tale Movie

BY CARL O. BOLANG

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Movie-makers needing a regal type for a walk-on part in a fairy tale decided to try the royal palace.

So King Gustaf Adolf VI plays the king of Sweden in "The Wonderful Adventures of Nils," movie version of the famed fairy tale by Selma Lagerloef, Nobel Prize winner.

A brief scene shows the monarch walking through his chamber onto a balcony and looking at a flock of geese passing overhead. Astride one of the geese rides Nils, played by 10-year-old Sven Lundberg.

Filmed Twice

Director Kenne Fant said the scene with the 79-year-old king was taken only twice.

The movie cost more than $500,000, most expensive ever filmed in Sweden. Besides cross-country goose-riding, the schoolboy Nils' other adventures include freeing an eagle from the Stockholm Zoo, warding off a dangerous bear by using a box of matches, discovering treasure and visiting an ancient, sunken city.

Most of the film was shot from a helicopter at low altitude.

Children Fascinated

Miss Lagerloef, a schoolmistress who became a member of the Swedish Academy of Letters, wrote the story 86 years ago. Before her death in 1940 at the age of 82 it had fascinated children in many countries.

Twenty-two boys will represent their countries at the world premier here Sept. 12. Robert Zuckerman, 12, of Westport, Conn., a prize-winning model builder and boy golfer, represents the United States. He was chosen in a competition for posters on Sweden.

'Yo-Yo Effect' Worries Officers

Recurring Call-Ups of Reservists May Cause Problems in Recruiting

BY FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some top officers voiced concern today that the "yo-yo" effect of recurring moves to call up military reservists would make it difficult to recruit volunteers for the National Guard and Reserve.

By yo-yo- effect they meant the call up of Reservists to meet a crisis such as in Berlin, the release of these Reservists when the crisis abates and then moves to muster more Reservists when new crises loom.

These officers stressed they were not suggesting that military Reservists are inclined to shirk duty.

Morale Problem

But they indicated they thought periodic moves signaling possible calls to active service keep Reservists on tenterhooks and create a morale problem.

If this sort of pattern continues, these officers said, the Reserve and National Guard may find themselves hard put to attract volunteer recruits and may have to rely on men with Reserve obligations to fill their ranks.

This would make it all the harder for the Army to maintain its Reserve forces at 700,000 men as Congress has ordered it should try to do this year.

Pentagon officials told Congress some months ago that they would have to undertake a heavy recruiting drive to come close to the 700,000 figure. They claimed that 642,000 was about the best they could hope to do.

New Complication

Military officers foresaw another possible complication if recurring Reserve alerts and call-ups become a general practice. They said employers might avoid hiring young men who were Reservists subject to active duty and thus to prolonged absence from their jobs.

President Kennedy's request Friday for stand-by authority to mobilize up to 150,000 Reservists, if necessary in the months ahead, came only a few weeks after about 147,000 Army, Navy and Air Force Reservists and National Guardsmen, called up after last summer's Berlin crisis, had returned to civilian life following about 10 months of duty.

The 147,000 would be immune any new call-up. If new men are summoned to the colors, they will be drawn from about 850,000 other Ready Reservists of all the services.

16 Divisions Ready

Senior military officials said they believed it would be necessary to mobilize only a relatively few Reservists or National Guardsmen in the event of another emergency of the magnitude of last year's step-up in tension over Berlin.

This is because the Army has been built from 11 to 16 combat-ready divisions, and the armed forces in general are about 170,000 larger than in the summer of 1961, when the Russians appeared on the verge of moving against Berlin.

Six Congressional Races Contested

3 of 10 Incumbents Challenged; Van Pelt Opposed in Sixth District

BY HARVEY BREUSCHER

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin primary election voters will pick nominees for Congress Tuesday in six contested races, two of them in the 6th District where Republican Rep William K. Van Pelt seeks a seventh term.

The 57-year-old Van Pelt, a resident of Fond du Lac, is opposed in the GOP primary by James P. Smyth, 41, who took leave from his Sheboygan food brokerage work in February to devote himself to campaigning.

Van Pelt, on the other hand, has spent little time soliciting votes, contending the press of business in Washington does not permit frequent returns to the district he has represented since 1950.

Democratic Battle

Two Democrats are battling for the opportunity to face the winner of the Van Pelt-Smyth race in the Nov. 6 general election.

They are John A. Race, 48, of Fond du Lac, a labor leader and county board supervisor; and Gordon V. Drake, 40, an associate professor at Oshkosh State College

Three of Wisconsin's 10 incumbent congressmen are being challenged in their party primaries. Van Pelt is one of them. The other two are Democrat Clement Zablocki of Milwaukee County's 4th District, and Republican Alvin O'Konski of the 10th.

Zablocki Opposed

Zablocki, 49, a seven-term veteran of the House of Representatives, again has drawn Roman Richard Blenski, a onetime state senator, as his opponent. The 45-year-old Blenski was whipped by Zablocki in the 1958 and 1960 primaries and is expected to give the congressman little trouble this time.

O'Konski, 57, of Mercer, has represented the 10th District in Northern Wisconsin for 20 years. His primary opponent is Raymond F. Stack, a 29-year-old real estate firm business manager from Superior making his first bid for public office.

3-Way Fight

A three-way fight is being waged for the Democratic nomination in the 1st District and one of the combatants is a woman—Miss Eleanora Wickstrom, 52 of rural Walworth.

Miss Wickstrom's male opponents are Jay Schwartz, 28, of Racine, a former assistant state attorney general; and Gerald T. Flynn, 51, of Racine Flynn held the congressional seat one term then lost his bid for reelection in 1960 to incumbent Republican Henry C Schadeberg, 49, of Burlington, who is unopposed in the primary.

Republicans in Wisconsin's Second District will chose between Ivan H. Kindschi, 41, a Marshall farmer; and David A. Noebel, 26, a Madison minister.

Popularity Contest

Republicans hold six of Wisconsin's 10 congressional seats. For four of the GOP members—Schadeberg, John Byrnes of Green Bay, Vernon Thomson of Richland Center, and Melvin Laird of Marshfield—the primary rates as little more than a popularity contest. The same holds true for Democrats Robert Kastenmeier of Watertown, Henry Reuss of Milwaukee and Lester Johnson of Black River Falls, all of whom are unoppoosed for renomination.

Xavier Plans Musical Units

Entire Department Set Up to Handle Bands, Choruses

Musical innovations at Xavier High School this fall are the formation of a band wind ensemble and of a mixed chorus. This is the first year that a complete musical department will be in operation at Xavier with three new faculty members.

According to band director Francis Scholtz, the concert band is starting the year "in fine shape" because of a successful summer session for band members.

Membership in the new wind ensemble was earned by bandsmen this summer, with 53 of the band's 80 members having earned a chair in the new group. Members also will have a choice of two other musical ensembles, a stage band and a pep band.

Prepares TV Program

The concert band is now preparing for a program to be presented on the High School Showcase Series over WFRV-TV, Channel 5, at 11:30 a.m. Sept 22

The wind ensemble will perform on Oct. 11 for the opening of a national meeting at Stansbury Theatre of Lawrence College. Both the wind ensemble and the concert band will appear in a fall concert Oct 28.

A mixed chorus will be organized for the first time this fall under the direction of Harry Heun He is planning for a group of 80 members this year Heun will handle the teaching of music in the boys' department, and Mrs Kenneth Mueller will teach music in the girls' department.

Mrs Mueller hopes to organize two all-girl vocal ensembles among the juniors and seniors in the form of madrigal groups.

Miss America Contest Ends Today With Naming of Beauty Queen

Miss Wisconsin Wins Swim Suit Competition in Preliminary Round

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A week of frantic activity by 54 talented beauty queens will end tonight, in smiles and tears, when judges select a new Miss America.

The task confronting the judges is this:

Series of Judging

The girl who will succeed Maria Beale Fletcher of Asheville, N C., as the nation's queen of beauty is expected to be crowned shortly before midnight.

The ceremony will climax a series of preliminary judging that began Monday in the nation's oldest beauty pageant Competing are representatives from every state, Canada, the District of Columbia, Chicago and New York City

Seven girls have won trophies in the three rounds of talent and swim suit preliminaries. Judging also has been completed in the evening gown division, but those winners are never announced.

Receive Scholarships

Winners in the preliminary rounds receive $1,000 scholarships but they do not necessarily advance to the semifinals.

The winner of the swim suit competition Friday was Miss Wisconsin—who thought she was too thin and has been drinking chocolate sodas to round out her 35-22-35 figure She is Joan Mary Engh, 21, of La Crosse, Wis.

There was a tie in Friday's talent contest when the judges were unable to decide between the fiery baton twirling of Miss Nebraska, Mary Lee Jepsen, 18, of Paillion, Neb., and the organ and piano playing of Miss Maryland, Beverly Ann Smith, 18, of Baltimore

They join the four girls who won the talent and swim suit competition in earlier rounds

Miss Engh, who is 5 feet 5½ inches tall and weighs 118 pounds, said she already had picked out a girl who she thought would win in the swim suit division, and "I didn't pick me, that's for sure"

She credited the chocolate sodas —with three scoops of ice cream —with helping her to outshine the other girls She said she had been devouring sodas "ever since I've been Miss Wisconsin, and they cost 57 cents with the sales tax we have."

"Get Singed"

Miss Nebraska twirled two flaming batons to the music of Manuel de Fallas's "Rutual Fire Dance" and received cheers and applause from the crowd of 7,412 Wasn't it dangerous?, she was asked.

'Hair doesn't burn, but you get singed," Miss Jepsen replied. "I always get singed."

segregation demonstrations and 1,200 arrests.

Catholic schools in the 71-county Atlanta Archdiocese integrated quietly with 17 Negroes attending six previously white schools—four in the Atlanta area, one in Marietta and one in Athens.

Church officials said Atlanta's successful desegregation—now in its second year with 44 Negroes attending classes at 10 formerly white high schools—played a major part in the decision to adopt a policy of "open admission without regard to race or color."

No Incident

Negro pupils were admitted to the only Catholic high school in Jacksonville, Fla., without incident and without previous announcement. The exact number of Negroes enrolled at Bishop Kenny High School was not revealed.

In the North, Negro boycotts called attention to what was variously described as de facto segregation or racial imbalance in the public schools. In New Jersey this meant the traditional neighborhood school system, a system that resulted in 98 per cent Negro enrollment at Englewood's Lincoln School.

Lincoln was boycotted when classes started Wednesday with only 189 youngsters—including all 15 white pupils—present out of an enrollment of 540. The boycott continued through Friday, and Negro and white pickets carrying placards protesting segregation paraded outside.

Equal Opportunity

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey told a news conference that if the Englewood situation continued the courts might upset the state's neighborhood system in which youngsters go to schools nearest their homes. He said he favored the system except where it resulted in denial of equal educational opportunity.

The governor said that if the Englewood school board would come up with a reasonable desegregation plan he was sure the boycott would end immediately. A sympathy boycott was staged at the Liberty School, where a third of the pupils skipped classes. They were expected to be in school Monday, however.

In contrast to the situation at Englewood, Negro pupils were transferred to primarily white schools in Montclair and Newark without incident.

Quick Okay Likely for Call-Up of Reservists

Kennedy asked Congress for substantial increases in the permanent strength of the Army, Navy and Air Force, and requested, also, power to call reserve and guard units to active service. Congress approved his request in about five days and congressional leaders said Friday they hope for similar, swift action on his new appeal.

Confers With Rusk

"In my judgment this renewed authorization is necessary to permit prompt and effective responses, as necessary, to challenges which may be presented in any part of the free world," the President told Congress Friday, "and I hope that the Congress will give its prompt support of this authorization, as it did, so effectively, a year ago."

Shortly after he sent his formal request to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, as president of the Senate, and House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., Kennedy conferred with Rusk. It was understood that they discussed potential future developments in the Berlin situation.

McCormack said he has "every confidence that Congress will enact the reserve legislation."

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, the senior Republican member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he would join with chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., in sponsoring the President's request in the Senate.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said Congress cannot quarrel with the President when, as commander-in-chief, he asks for standby authority to call up reservists. But, Dirksen said, "There will be questions."

"You have a natural curiosity as to what is behind such a sudden call for authority when you have 2.8 million men in uniform," Dirksen said.

"Is it Cuba, Berlin, Asia, or some other situation, or is it psychological?" Dirksen asked as he talked to newsmen.

GOP Proposal

Dirksen said that he and House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana would ask separate consideration of their proposal that Congress grant Kennedy advance authority to use troops if necessary to meet the threat of Communist military build-ups in Cuba.

The Republican proposal was made only an hour and a half before the White House announced the new reserve call-up request.

There has been a chorus of demands this week from both Democrats and Republicans for tougher action against Cuba.

Halleck told newsmen it was strange that Kennedy's reserve request followed so closely the Republican leadership proposal on Cuba.

Judge Dismisses $214,156 Suit Against Kohlers

MILWAUKEE (AP)—U. S. District Judge Kenneth Grubb dismissed Friday the $214,156 claim filed by former Gov. Walter Kohler Jr. against his uncle, Herbert Kohler, the Kohler Co. and a Chicago accounting firm.

Walter Kohler had sold his 21,415 shares of stock in the plumbingware firm for $115 a share while he was governor in 1953.

Later, Kohler sued his uncle, the company and the accounting firm of Ernst and Ernst of Chicago, alleging that he should have received $10 more per share, or $214,156 more. He said the value of the stock had been misrepresented to him by Herbert Kohler, then president of the family firm, and by Ernst and Ernst.

"This is not a case of an uninformed, uneducated plaintiff lacking business acumen," Judge Grubb said. "This is a plaintiff who is a highly successful businessman familiar with financial statements and specifically with the accounts about which he now claims were not explained to him."

Your Problems

Catty Conversationalist Is Victim of Own Indiscretion

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: What do you think of a girl who would telephone a friend and get her to talk about someone in a most uncomplimentary manner when all the time that someone who was being talked about is listening in on the extension telephone in the first person's house?

Landers

Isn't this about the lowest trick you ever heard of in your whole life? I was trapped into such a situation and I would like to have a comment from you. — Victimized

Dear Victimized: Yes, this is indeed a shabby trick, but it should teach you a lesson. Never say anything about anyone on the telephone (or anyplace else, for that matter) that you would not say to that person's face.

And as for the cat who framed you, she's a promising candidate for the All American Skunk Award (Female Division).

* * *

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You will never print my letter because nobody wants to face the truth about this subject.

You often use a sentence that makes me laugh. I quote: "The law says a man must support his wife and children." Well, I have news for you — the law may say so but in this state it's just a joke.

I speak from experience, and here's what it's like. The support department at the State's Attorney's office takes your name and all the information. They tell you to wait three months. You wait. Then you appear again and are told they are trying to contact him. You wait another three months. After that they tell you he is not at the address you gave them. So you phone and find he is there and has been all along.

You go back to the State's Attorney's office. They say they'll look into it. In three months they call and say "He hasn't any money. Do you want to press charges for non-support and have him put in jail?"

What good is he to you in jail? So you say "Skip it."

My advice to women with children is this: Stick it out until the kids are old enough to stand on their own feet. Once a man leaves, your chances for getting support money are mighty slim. — Been Through It

Dear Been: Some states are tougher on the scoundrels than others. I'm in favor of clobbering these low-lifes who try to run out on their responsibilities. Rekardless of the law, your last paragraph makes a lot of sense if a man is short on integrity.

* * *

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I don't know if you play bridge but I think you can advise me whether or not you know the game.

My husband and I play a lot of cards. He considers himself a genius. I think he's a fine player, but he can and does make mistakes. As for me, I'm a good player, but I don't pretend to be infatlible

The other evening we had another couple in for bridge. Since my husband has a habit of overbidding I was upset when he opened with a wild bid of five spades. I quietly said, "I hope you know what you're doing. I think you're crazy."

He gave me a withering look and said, "Just shut your big, fat mouth and play the hand."

We didn't make it, and he was furious. After our guests left he said, "Your cutting remark rattled me and that is why we lost. I refuse to play cards with you again."

I think I should be the one who is mad. Do you agree?—Set.

Dear Set: You were both out of order. With temperaments such as yours, I can think of 52 good reasons why you and your husband should not play cards together. Throw in the deck permanently.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Costly Finesse

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A finesse will sometimes gain a trick for you, but preparing for the finesse may lose the trick right back. If it then turns out that the finesse fails, you have had all your trouble for nothing.

How should you play this hand at four hearts? Should you or shouldn't you take a finesse in hearts?

Win the first trick with the ace of diamonds and see what happens if you vote in favor of a trump finesse. You lead a spade to dummy's king and return the queen of hearts for a finesse.

Opening lead — ◇ Q

Unfortunately the finesse loses. The defenders take their diamond trick and lead a spade to dummy's ace.

Now when you eventually knock out the ace of clubs, East can defeat the contract by cashing a spade trick.

You wouldn't be in danger if only that heart finesse had worked. The opponents wouldn't have time to force out dummy's ace of spades, and you would make eleven tricks instead of only nine.

Safer Way

The safer way to play the hand is to reject the heart finesse. Lead out the ace of hearts at the second trick and then give up a heart to the king.

The opponents can cash a diamond trick and knock out dummy's king of spades, but dummy's ace of spades is still there. You draw the last trump and start the clubs. Nothing can stop you from discarding a spade on dummy's long club suit.

The finesse gives you either nine tricks or eleven tricks. Rejecting the finesse gives you a safe ten tricks. Decide for yourself which you'd rather have.

Daily Question

As dealer, you hold: S, 7 6 3, H, A J 10 5 2, D, A 5, C, Q 6 4. What do you say?

Answer: Pass. This hand would be worth an opening bid if you had a sixth heart or even if you had 5-4-3-1 distribution in place of the flat 5-3-3-2. It is not a crime to open a hand of this sort, but it pays to wait for something just a trifle better.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

(AP Newsfeatures)

Dr. William B. Walsh, founder and president of Project Hope, knows the Power of Faith.

In his words, "80 per cent of the world lives on hope — hope that tomorrow will be better. To sustain that hope, they have to have faith."

Dr. Walsh's project is a non-profit operation financed entirely by voluntary contributions. Hundreds of other physicians, dentists, pharmacists, nurses and technicians staff its hospital ship, named Hope, which so far has been to Indonesia, South Vietnam and Peru.

It will set sail for any country to which it is invited, dispensing health — and hope — in the struggle for world peace.

Thought It Was Competing

Youth Group Disbands Because It Felt 'Shunted From Church'

BY JULES LOH

By whatever name — Luther League, Royal ambassadors, Westminister Fellowship — the young people's group is a fixture as firmly established in most Protestant denominations as the board of trustees.

Such organizations provide teenagers with opportunity for wholesome entertainment, as their parents so often say, a chance to meet good Christian boys and girls. The groups also can be useful. The kids wash cars and mow lawns to help out with the church debt, or perhaps serve as baby sitters to help boost attendance at evening services.

Recently the youth organization of the United Church of Christ met and, while adult moderators nodded approvingly, voted itself out of existence.

According to the Rev. Henry Tani of Philadelphia, the denomination's youth work secretary, the young people felt they were being shunted into a neat little compartment with little relationship to the rest of the church.

'Don't Bother Us'

"The adults give the kids money for a juke box and a youth center and tell them to stay there, don't bother us," the Rev. Mr. Tani said. "Then they wonder why the young people leave the church."

In some cases, said the Rev. Mr. Tani, the youngsters felt they were even competing with the church.

In place of the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational Christian Church and the Youth Fellowship of the Evangelical and Reformed Church — the youth groups of the two denominations which merged in 1957 to form the United Church of Christ—there now will be one "Youth Ministry."

Its objective: "To make the whole church sensitive to the special needs and concerns of young people, (and) to make the young people sensitive to the whole church, to other youth, and to the world."

Discard Convention

To show they mean business, the youngsters already have discarded the annual convention—which in the view of these young people sometimes was little more than a pleasant trip out of town to elect new officers and decide where to hold next year's meeting.

United Church youngsters will have no national officers, no national meetings, but instead will conduct annual "youth forums." The first wil be a discussion next year in some Southern city on the subject of race relations.

On the local level, the youngsters intend to be as active as possible in church activities.

The teen-agers also intend to press for elimination of all money-making schemes — leaf raking, snow shoveling and the like. "I would rather see the kids pledge a regular amount each week from their allowances," the Rev. Mr. Tani said.

Lutherans Buy Building for Temporary Use

A new Lutheran congregation being established in southeast Appleton has purchased a building at 407 E. Calumet St. for temporary use as a chapel.

The organizational meeting of the congregation will be at the new chapel at 8 p.m. Sept. 16. Plans will be completed then for the first church service Sept. 30. The church school also will begin Sept. 30.

The building now is being prepared for worship services.

The new parish is sponsored by the Board of American Missions of the Lutheran Church in America. The Rev. Charles W. Briggs is pastor.

The pastors and church council of Trinity Lutheran Church are cooperating with the development of the new mission. The boundaries of the mission will be the Fox River on the west and north, Airport Road and Old Manitowoc Road on the south, S. Kernan Avenue on the east and W. Seymour St. from Riverview Lane to Oneida Street and Calumet Street from Oneida to Kernan on the north.

Combined Locks Holy Name Men Plan Breakfast

COMBINED LOCKS — The first communion-breakfast of the new season will be held by the Holy Name Society of St. Paul Catholic Church at the 8:30 a.m. mass Sunday.

Prayers will be said for members who died during the summer and John Fritz, past president, will be honored. The Rev. Bernard Timmers, parish pastor, will speak on "Whither St. Paul" at the breakfast gathering. Plans for the membership drive will be discussed.

Church Couples Group Sets Party To Open Meetings

The Couples Club at Trinity Lutheran Church, Appleton, will open its fall and winter season of regular monthly meetings with an evening of fellowship Sunday.

A steak fry will be held in Alicia Park at 6:30 p.m. All couples in the congregation are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Otteson are co-chairmen of the committee in charge of arrangements. Their assistants are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lundgren, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ellefson, Mr. and Mrs. William Graupman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bytof, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. LaVahn Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Catana.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lovdahl are co-presidents of the club.

Names Three to Recreation Unit

Three new appointments to the recreation and education committee of Mt. Olive Lutheran Church were announced at the first meeting of the fall and winter session this week.

Committee president G. C. Herzfeldt named L. L. Doerfler as education representative, M. O. Knoke as athletic representative and H. M. Schumacher as youth activity representative.

Get Out to Vote Tuesday

Nearly everyone is predicting a small turnout for the primary election Tuesday. This is a fairly safe prediction because the turnouts at the primaries are always small. However, this year there are very few contests on the state ballot or for the legislative and county offices in this area.

The lack of contests will certainly mean a smaller vote. However, the small vote could bring results that will determine to a large extent the result of the election next November.

The lack of contests is particularly true on the Democratic ballot. There are only two contests for state office, Eugene M. Lamb and John Schneider both seeking the nomination for state treasurer, and William H. Evans and Elliot N. Walstead for attorney general.

There is only one interesting contest for the Democratic nomination for a county office, the three-way race in the second assembly district.

What contests there are to bring voters to the polls are on the Republican ballot.

Of prime importance of course is the race between Philip G. Kuehn and Wilbur N. Renk for the gubernatorial nomination, with Robert LaFollette Sucher as a third candidate. George Thompson and Robert G. Marotz are in the field for attorney general, and Arlyn F. Wollenburg is opposing Alexander Wiley's nomination for United States Senator.

Locally there is a hot contest on between Harold Froehlich and Kenneth Priebe in the first assembly district, and there is considerable interest in the three-way Republican contest for sheriff.

The Republicans have often accused the Democrats of crossing over into the Republican primary to nominate candidates which they feel will be to the advantage of the Democrats. In the past Democratic leaders have often counseled their party members to vote in their own primary even when there are few contests because the larger primary vote gives prestige to the party. This year, however, things are different. With the prospect for a very small vote in the primary, Democrats are more interested than ever in crossing over because their votes will count for more. In fact there are many persons willing to predict today that Renk will be nominated as a Republican candidate for governor largely by Democratic crossover votes. Renk has encouraged Democrats to vote for him and he has been joined in encouraging this political migration by former members of the now defunct Progressive party including Philip LaFollette.

Governor Gaylord Nelson, who is the unopposed Democratic candidate for the nomination for United States senator, has refused to discourage such crossover voting. His reason is that voters will cross over if they want to regardless of what the governor might advise. On the other hand Patrick Lucey, Democratic state chairman, has urged Democrats to stay in their own primary. This is further evidence of the rift between the Nelson faction of the party and the Lucey-Reynolds faction. While John W. Reynolds, attorney general and unopposed candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, declares that he is not interested in which Republican opposes him in the general election nevertheless it is quite probable that Renk would be the most troublesome candidate for Reynolds since he probably would draw more heavily from those of Democratic leanings than would Kuehn. Most Republican voters would also prefer Renk to Reynolds although some right-wingers might stay home rather than vote for either of them.

Thus it can be seen that the split in the Democratic party may send a heavier than usual migration among Democrats into the Republican primary. This migration in fact could be heavy enough to give the nomination to Renk. If it does it will most certainly be the fault of the stay-at-home Republicans.

Those voters who think that this is a dull primary with little need for exercising an important duty of citizenship may have a rude surprise in store.

It May be a Long Strike

Ben Heineman, chairman of the Chicago and North Western Railway, says that the line will stay shut down for months if necessary to win its strike with the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. "The principle involved here is such that it would stop progress not only on the North Western, but in the whole railroad industry," he stated. "For that kind of principle we will continue our present stand for as long as the telegraphers union continues theirs."

With the strike becoming more and more important to many people in this area it is vital that the public understand the principle Mr. Heineman refers to.

In recent years the relatively new management of the railroad has taken a number of somewhat drastic steps to try to reduce its operating expenses below its operating income. One of these steps was the elimination of stations in many small communities, throwing telegraphers and other employes out of work.

Faced with the probability that this trend will continue, the telegraphers union has demanded a contract clause stating that no jobs which existed on the railroad Dec. 31, 1957 can be eliminated without union consent.

The management of the North Western has the right to assume that such consent would never be forthcoming, and hence refers to the proposed clause as a "job freeze proposal." The management also takes the position that submitting to this proposal would be giving the union a veto over management's right to run its business.

The situation on the North Western is similar to the problem in other industries where automation of production processes leads to laying off workers. This issue has brought on long and bitter strikes in a number of other instances.

Management of any business must have the right to adopt policies which make its operations more efficient, even if it means laying off workers. On the other hand, in our modern concept of fair employe relations, management also has the responsibility to alleviate as much as possible economic hardship to workers thus displaced.

In the North Western case a fact finding commission appointed by the President recommended a number of measures to aid the displaced telegraphers, including displacement allowances, furlough allowances, separation allowances, moving and traveling expenses, extension of pension and hospitalization benefits, preference of employment, and training and retraining programs. The railroad accepted these liberal conditions, but the union has refused to give up its primary demand.

It is unfortunate that this union has resorted to a strike to try and settle a basic issue which in the end can only be solved by compromise. No enlightened management can give up its right to manage its own business and long stay in business. That is why Mr. Heineman says his railroad will stay closed a long time unless the union gives up its primary demand.

Berlin Wall Passes First Year

BY SID MOODY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

In a more rational time, a peace treaty would hardly seem a step towards more acute hostility.

But it is in the days of the cold war.

For several years the Russians have been threatening to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany and it is this threat that is the sizzling fuse to the Berlin powder keg.

None of the World War II allies has signed a pact with the divided Germanies although 17 years have passed since the war's end. The French, British and American troops stationed in Berlin are therefore there under agreements made with the Russians at the Yalta Conference during the war.

What Treaty Means

Should Russia unilaterally sign a treaty with East Germany, it would mean the Western powers could stay in Berlin, or have access to it, only at the whim of the East Germans.

This the West is not prepared to tolerate. It claims its rights can't be infringed by a treaty it had no part in between Russia and East Germany, a nation it doesn't even recognize officially.

But Russia may move towards a treaty anyway. The Communists feel it would strengthen the weak Red regime of Walter Ulbricht in East Germany, giving it a certain added prestige among its subjects as well as diminishing, outwardly at least, the specter of Russian control. And it would put pressure on the West.

And that's where the problem lies. How much more pressure can Khrushchev put on the West before the pot blows up?

Maintain Rights

The Western powers have steadfastly maintained their right to access to West Berlin and their right to station troops there. The 1948 airlift during the Russian blockade of Berlin echoed this determination. So did the convoys of troops the United States sent to West Berlin after the Berlin wall went up a year ago (see map). The troops were sent and arrived without incident despite warnings from the East Germans.

Military movements of Allied troops to Berlin are under Russian jurisdiction. But if a treaty were signed, these movements would be controlled by East Germany.

What would happen, then, if after a treaty were signed, the East Germans closed the West's links with Berlin? Presumably, the Western powers would use force if necessary to protect their rights. To give in would be a disastrous setback and would imperil the alliance with West Germany, long a major goal of Soviet policy.

On the other hand, Russia could hardly stand aside and see her East German satellite pushed around by the West.

Thus, as the years pass and the Russians slowly chip away at the Western powers in Berlin, there is increasingly little room for diplomatic manuever.

New Squeeze

The erection of the wall in August, 1961 made Western rights of access to East Berlin all but a formality. The withdrawal of the Russian army commander from East Berlin and his replacement by an East German put another squeeze on the West.

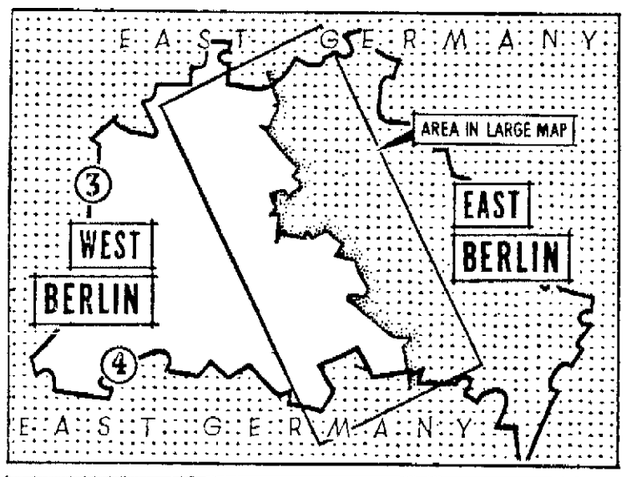
Whether Khrushchev intends to push the Western powers in Berlin into such a tight corner that they can do naught but fight back, is problematical. Perhaps he merely wants to strengthen his hand at any bargaining table.

But circumstance sometimes has ways of dealing its own hands, and not always choice cards.

The uproar after Communist guards shot a fleeing East German youth and left him to die by the wall near the U.S. Checkpoint Charley (see map) was spontaneous. West Germans skimmed stones and hooted at American and Russian soldiers alike.

They particularly vented their feelings against the Russian guard that regularly patrols the Soviet War Memorial in West Berlin, injuring several of them with rocks.

Rocks don't start wars. But incidents can. And along the highly charged length of the Berlin wall, who can say when there will finally be one incident too many?



(1) Work begins on wall Aug 13, 1961
(2) U S and Russian tanks face each other over wall Oct 26, 1961
(3) Highjacked train flees to West Dec 5, 1961
(4) East Germany demands U S stop autobahn troop movements Dec 16, 1961
(5) Twenty-eight East Germans cut way through wall Jan 24
(6) First border guard, an East German, killed during gunfire exchange over escaping swimmer May 23
(7) Part of wall blown up starting chain of blastings May 26
(8) Fourteen escape on stolen excursion boat June 8
(9) Wounded East German boy left to die at wall Aug 17

LaCrosse Lawmaker Compliments Editorial

Editor, Post-Crescent:

One of my fellow-legislators from your county — Marvin Babbitt of Seymour — has sent to me a copy of the editorial which appeared in your paper on Sept. 2 and entitled "Reapportionment Is Not a Simple Matter."

I am very pleased to know that you have presented this subject to your readers in this well-written editorial. And I am also pleased that you found useful in doing so that material which I had prepared on this subject several weeks ago.

I had a feeling that the various local papers throughout the state were not presenting the full story to the people. Certainly our La Crosse paper did not do so. Thus many of the people outside of Milwaukee knew little about this problem except that which they read in the Milwaukee papers. And obviously those papers were presenting arguments in favor of 26 Assembly seats for Milwaukee county, as demanded by Gov. Nelson and other Democrats. Your final sentence hit the nail quite directly on the head with the words—"Democratic leaders interested in adding to the Milwaukee county representation because of the large Democratic vote there".

Republicans cast about 40 per cent of the Milwaukee vote, and yet 22 of the 24 Milwaukee Assemblymen are Democrats. I am not at all sure that the 2 additional Assemblymen from that county would have been Democrats even if they had been given 26 seats.

Once again, my thanks to you for your help in getting across to your readers the other side of the story on this issue.

120 Species of Birds Now Face Extinction

WASHINGTON — The rat-tat-tat of the ivory-billed woodpecker and the soft, melodious whistle of the Eskimo curlew may soon fade into silence.

The two birds are among some 120 species that face extinction. At least a dozen are native to the United States.

Slaughter for pleasure and profit by former generations of Americans eliminated the passenger pigeon, heath hen, Carolina parakeet, great auk, and Labrador duck.

Today, the main threats to the wildbird are civilization's highways and homes, mechanized farms and factories, reports the National Geographic Society.

Largest Woodpecker

Only two ivory-billed woodpeckers have been sighted in the United States in ten years. The largest member of the woodpecker family once populated the dense cypress swamps of the South, dining on wood borers beneath the bark. Lumbermen felled the age-old forests, destroying the bird's privacy and pantry.

Eskimo curlews, plump shorebirds that are too tasty for their own good, bred numerously in the marshes of western Canada. The flocks migrated eastward to Labrador and down Atlantic coasts to wintering grounds in Argentina.

Curlews were shot and marketed by the carload until they all but vanished in 1945. Fortunately, the curlew is reported reappearing in small numbers in Texas.

Killed by Drainage

The Everglades kite, a one-time common sight skimming over southern marshlands, now numbers less than ten in the United States. The few survivors inhabit a single swamp near Florida's Lake Okeechobee. Extensive swamp drainage destroyed the kite's natural habitat and its sole source of food, a species of fresh-water snail. The bird still thrives in South America.

The bald eagle, official symbol of the United States may be in danger. Ornithologists estimate that only a few thousand remain. The elusive, wilderness-loving bird has retreated in the face of spreading suburbs.

Some naturalists believe the bald eagle and other birds of prey die from eating small birds and mammals which have themselves fed on grain, leaves, or insects contaminated by highly poisonous insecticides.

Special Sanctuary

Less than 70 California condors cling grimly to a rocky sanctuary in California's Los Padres National Forest. The giant member of the vulture family soared on 11-foot-wide wings over most of the Southwest at one time.

The basic misfortune is that since it eats carrion, the condor has virtually outlasted its food supply. Ranchers now destroy cattle carcasses instead of leaving them on the ground. Many condors die from poisoned meat put out by farmers to kill cougar and coyote.

Other rare American birds include Bachman's warbler, the trumpeter swan, eastern turkey, Hudsonian godwit, Hawaiian goose or nene, Attwater's prairie chicken, and the much-publicized whooping crane.

How Crazy Can You Get, Now?

From The New York Daily News

At an estimated eventual cost of $1.5 million, the U.S. Agency for International Development plans to deal 1,000 TV sets around in backward countries' jungle villages for the purpose of teaching the natives to read.

When the batteries run down, it is the AID's happy thought that they can be recharged by windmills, or by hooking them up to child-powered merry-go-rounds in school play yards.

And here, folks, we see another reason why more Americans each day grow dubious about foreign aid of all kinds.

Looking Backward

To Enlist or be Drafted Big Query

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Aug. 30, 1862.

To Enlist or be Drafted — this momentous question, which is now the almost exclusive topic of conversation, should be considered seriously. Not from craven fear of going into service and endangering your long stay on this mundane sphere, but from the higher motives of duty and your reputation as a Union-loving citizen.

It now centers down to plain this and that. On one hand, if you volunteer, you will receive ample bounty to leave your families well provided for, besides 160 acres of land, your pay of $2 more per month and you can choose your own company or regiment.

On the other side of the picture, if our County quota is not full by Saturday night a draft will be resorted to, and there will be no dodging. Drafted men will receive but $11 per month and no bounty.

Wisconsin has been called on for an additional 5,900 men, her share toward filling up the old regiments. This will add about 80 more to our county, additional to the 291 on previous calls, making about 371 to furnish in all

We ought to raise the quota without any draft. Shall it be done! The towns and city quotas will probably soon be ascertained. Those towns that send few men will of course suffer most by draft.

Enlist by all means!

The number of students attending classes at Chilton High School was 335, exceeding the previous year's enrollment by 24.

10 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepherd and their son Timothy left Appleton to return to their home in Watertown, Conn., after spending time as guests of Mrs. Shepherd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Pelkey, 12 Brokaw Place. Before coming to Appleton, they spent several weeks with Mr. Shepherd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Shepherd, 824 E. Forest Ave., Neenah.

The Rev. Carl Pulvermacher, OFM, read his first mass at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Appleton.

Miss Edith Broetzman was in charge of forensics and the Thespians at Neenah High School.

Officers of the Menasha High School sophomore class were James McQuillen, president, Karen Garnes, vice president, and Susan Garnes, secretary.

The Rev. Frank D. Harris, pastor of the Winneconne Presbyterian Church, returned to the pulpit after a two-month absence during which time he recuperated from an operation.

Oscar Bayer and his sons Gerald, Chuck and Syl made up the champion foursome of the Goodfellows League on Appleton's Municipal golf course.

Senate Wants to Help Pick Next FBI Head

From St. Louis Post-Dispatch

Sen. Dirksen has made two discoveries which startled some of his colleagues. One is that J. Edgar Hoover, 67, is just three years away from mandatory retirement and thus will not be Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation forever. The other is that Mr. Hoover's successor could be named by the attorney general in about the way that officer chooses a stenographer — without presidential appointment or senate confirmation.

Therefore the minority leader from Illinois has introduced a bill stating that when Mr. Hoover retires, the President shall name his successor for a term of 15 years, and the next FBI Director will not be eligible to succeed himself. Senate confirmation of the appointment will be required, and that is Sen. Dirksen's main point.

The senator may be motivated by reasons which others will not share, but basically his proposal is a sound one. The FBI was a relatively unimportant agency when begun in 1908 in the first Roosevelt Administration, and remained so even when Atty. Gen. Harlan Fiske Stone named J. Edgar Hoover as director in 1924 on the recommendation of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover. But nobody can say the FBI is an unimportant agency today.

During 38 years under J. Edgar Hoover, the FBI has grown not only in size but in influence in the daily life of the nation. Its budget is now put at $127,000,000 and it has 13,776 employes. It has grown because Congress has repeatedly given it new federal criminal statutes to enforce and has clothed it with some aspects of a political police. This condition followed passage of a series of laws involving subversion and security.

When many less important posts are filled by the President, the FBI directorship is far too important to be left to more casual appointment. As the Dirksen bill implies, the power of the FBI office is such that it should not be enhanced by lifetime tenure. And since the director directs an agency that is largely hidden from public scrutiny, it is the more essential that this scrutiny of the director be provided, in advance, through Senate confirmation.

In that process senators of all political persuasions will have an opportunity to inspect the appointee.

Jingo Sees Previews Of Season's TV Shows

Specials Look Promising, but Many Programs on Same Old Themes

BY JINGO

There's a gag making the rounds about a TV actor's nightmare. It seems Eliot Ness crashed his Car 54 on Route 66 and the actor ran all over 77 Sunset Strip looking for Dr. Kildare or Dr. Ben Casey to give medical aid.

Jingo

It really isn't funny. It's even less funny after an examination of the "new" TV series starting this month.

Jingo this week was the guest of WFRV-TV at a closed circuit, network-wide preview of the new NBC season. The Channel 5 crew threw a very nice party, but honesty forces Jingo to act as thoughh e were biting the hand that fed him so well

Don't get the idea that the season will be devoid of anything to look forward to. There is — a little!

Appropriately the really exciting prospects will be involved in specials. There are 50 specials on the schedules — many of them in color.

Of course, color is the big news of the season. NBC will air 68 per cent of its night time programs in color and will have some color during the daytime schedule as well. Color was very much in evidence in the preview this week and it must be said it added flavor to the programs—saffron appeared to be the prominent hue.

Friday's headliner, "Don't Call Me Charley," appeared to arouse the biggest response in the Green Bay studio audience. It's an Army show laid in Paris with a harassed commanding officer playing the prominent role It reminded Jingo quite a bit of a classic Army series laid in Ft. Baxter, Kans.. but Jingo's a confirmed cynic.

New Medico

The medical listings gain a psychiatric practitioner on Wednesday when Wendell Corey takes to the airways in "The 11th Hour." The idea is that Dr. Corey, each week, steps in at "The 11th Hour" to calm down a patient just in time. The tension on the set must be terrific.

Scope is the byword of the network, according to the brass who appeared on the previous show, and Wednesday's "The Virginian" fills the bill. It has a huge cast and will run, in color, 90 minutes. It tells the story of the impact of the beginning of the 20th Century on the West as seen on three boys — just like brothers — and their just like a father boss, Lee J. Cobb. NBC also will have Bonanza back at its regular time, in color, on Sunday.

A sort of male Miss Brooks-Beaver series heads the Sunday string in he shape of Allyn Joslyn's vehicle "McKeever and the Colonel" in a military school setting. Dean Jones follows in a sort of non-medical "Hennesy" as "Ensign O'Toole." This also has a touch of pulchritude — international — reminiscent of Bob Cummings and Tab Hunter.

'Untouchable' Overtones

Tab Hunter's wealthy side-kick shows up in Nick Adams' vehicle about the press, "Saints and Sinners" on Monday. This has an overtone of "The Untouchables," as far as the clips at the preview revealed.

Monday also is the setting for a real potpourri, "It's a Man's World." It's the story of four teenagers living on a houseboat in a college town. Thursday has another such visible twist on "Wide Country," a story of a rodeo performer roaming the country doing good. Another morern Western is "Empire", in color, on Wednesday.

Andy Williams brings his calm self to the Thursday lineup to back-up Perry Como once more in his old Wednesday slot. Jack Paar comes back on Friday night and NBC poses strong competition to Perry Mason with Edmund O'Brien in Mason's Saturday spot as Sam Benedict, a fictionalized report on the real attorney Jake Ehrlich.

The big news of the special will take up another installment soon.

TV Comedy Has Promise

Carpenter Pair To Open Series On ABC Sept. 28

BY BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This is the season of hope and promise, when the new television series start to unveil their charms and failings.

This is the season of the big pour, when the networks and sponsors and agencies display their new fall wares to the tuneful splash of spirits It has become traditional in this season to promote group watching of the new television product by the Hollywood press. Many of the town's favorite watering spots are engaged for this purpose.

In the interest of health and sanity, I have chosen this period for a vacation. But before leaving, I engaged in the kickoff for the fall social season, a dinner at Chasen's for "I'm Dickens—He's Fenster."

That is a television show. Because it has not made its debut (Friday, Sept. 28 on ABC), I should perhaps review the dinner: Beef stew, superb; fried chicken, excellent; mixed sherbert, needs fixing.

Termed Excellent

After dessert came a showing of the series pilot, which is inevitable at such affairs. I can report that it was better than the fried chicken, though not as good as the beef stew.

It was made several months ago and still bore the title of "The Workers," which was later discarded, perhaps as being too proletarian. Whence came the present title?

"It came naturally," said Leonard Stern, the mastermind behind it all. "Everyone is seeking a sense of identity. I felt it myself during the years when I was part of a team of comedy writers. I as just one of the boys."

Carpenter Duo

Dickens is John Astin, a clever actor who played the wolf with Doris Day in 'That Touch of Mink." Fenster is Marty Ingels, an accomplished young comic with the dimpled face of a Red Skelton and the voice of William Bendix.

They are carpenters. This, explained Stern, gives them a middle-income identification with the great mass of television viewers.

If he seems more profound than most producers of new television series, it comes naturally. Stern, longtime head writer for Steve Allen, is a tall man with black goatee and the air and lingo of a psychiatrist.

Giants Beat Cubs, Reduce Dodger Lead to Half Game

Bucs Rip LA Despite 4 Wills Steals

BY MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maury Wills gets to keep second base. But Bill Mazeroski will have to leave the left field bullpen where it is.

Wills, the fleet Los Angeles shortstop, put on a fantastic one-man show Friday night by stealing four bases for a season total of 82, surpassing the modern National League record of 80 set by Cincinnati's Bob Bescher 51 years ago and moving to 14 short of Ty Cobb's all-time standard of 96.

But Mazeroski overshadowed Wills' heroics with a show of power, blasting a grand slam homer that propelled Pittsburgh to a 10-1 triumph over the front-running Dodgers and trimmed their edge to a half-game over surging San Francisco, a 6-5 winner over the Chicago Cubs.

Speed and Daring

Wills started his demonstration of speed and daring in the first inning when he singled and stole second and third. In the third inning, Wills drew a walk and stole second. In the sixth, Wills again singled and promptly proceeded to second with another stolen base.

His third inning steal was No. 81, eclipsing Bescher's record. As a symbol of his achievement, Wills was presented the second base bag.

But, it was still a 1-1 ball game in the eighth when Mazeroski came to bat with the bases loaded and won it by belting the first grand slam of his career, into the left field bullpen.

There was no award for Mazeroski.

The Giants, who haven't been this close to the Dodgers since July 8, continued their surge as Jack Sanford posted his 21st victory—his 15th in a row—with home run support from Jose Pagan, Tom Haller and Felipe Alou.

Meanwhile, third-place Cincinnati closed the gap to 3½ games with a 6-5, 11-inning triumph over St. Louis that might prove costly. Reds' first baseman Gordy Coleman, who has hit 27 homers and driven in 84 runs, was spiked during the game and will be lost for an indefinite period.

Elsewhere, Philadelphia edged Milwaukee 4-3 in 10 innings and Houston defeated the New York Mets 4-2.

The Dodgers committed five errors, and collected only four hits off Earl Francis while losing their fourth game in the last five. They scored on Frank Howard's second inning homer, but the Pirates knotted it in the third on Bill Virdaon's double and a single by Bob Skinner. It remained that way until the eighth when Mazeroski tagged the clincher off Stan Williams.

Packers Strive to Extend Non-Loop Win Streak to 19

POST-CRESCENT

Donahue Will Start Tonight Against 'Skins

BY ART DALEY
Post-Crescent News Service

COLUMBUS, Ga. — The Packers will go for their third straight unbeaten pre-season campaign when they meet the Redskins in a non-league game in Memorial Stadium at 8 p.m. today.

Green Bay swept the non-championship board in 1960 and 1961 and followed with Western Division titles — not to mention the world crown last year.

A victory tonight would be the 19th straight non-looper starting with the last two in 1959, which was Vince Lombardi's debut season as head coach; six in 1960; five in 1961; and five thus far this season.

More than 15,000 fans are expected for the charity affair sponsored by the Boys Club of Columbus.

Last Chance

The Redskins, who snapped an 18-game losing streak by whipping the Bears a week ago, will provide the Packers with their last chance to test rookie personnel.

Lombardi announced Friday that Oscar Donahue will start at right halfback in place of the regular flanker, Boyd Dowler. "And maybe we'll start Barnes, too. Donahue hasn't played yet," Lombardi said.

Donahue and Gary Barnes, who plays left end behind Max McGee, are two of the four rookies on offense. The others are fullback Earl Gros and guard Ed Blaine, both of whom will see plenty of action. The fifth rookie, Ron Gassert, will work behind Bill Quinlan and Willie Davis at defensive end.

The Packers can expect exceptionally stiff resistance tonight.

Cut Loose

Washington's victory over the Bears has given the team a tremendous lift, and Bill McPeak's squad is expected to cut loose with everything.

In fact, big Ben Davidson, who was traded to the Redskins a week ago, told some of the Bays that "we'll win some games this season". Elijah Pitts answered this way, "Well, I hope you don't start against us."

And that explains how the Packers feel about this game of football.

The Redskins have three other former Packers — Jack Nisby, Bobby Freeman and Dale Hackbart. Nisby will open at offensive left guard and Freeman and Hackbart will start at the safety spots. Davidson plays defensive tackle and hopes to start

One of the Packers' big problems will be Bobby Mitchell, the former Brown great. Mitchell plays flanker and shares the pass catching with ends Fred Dugan and Bill Anderson. Veteran Dick James backs up Mitchell.

The Redskins feel they finally have top-flight running backs in Billy Barnes and Don Bosseler. Sophomore quarterback Norman Snead is passing over 50 per cent and has three TD passes.

The Packers will have to get along without Jess Whittenton, the regular cornerback who has a leg injury. Herb Adderley may work in his spot, shifting over from left corner. Hank Gremminger will be at left corner and John Symank and Willie Wood at the safety spots.

Xavier Opens Season At Escanaba; Seeks 14th Straight Win

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

Xavier High School football fans will find out Sunday what the prospects are for another fabulous season, such as the 1961 champion Hawks enjoyed.

Xavier invades Escanaba, Mich., at 2 p.m. Sunday for the only interstate football game any Fox Cities high school will play this season. Escanaba Holy Name has already played a game, scoring a 7-0 win over Stephenson, Mich.

Last year, the Hawks handed Escanaba its only defeat, in a 32-14 offensive show, played here. Holy Name, which gained 198 yards through the air against the Hawks, gave Xavier more trouble than any other foe except Green Bay Premontre.

The 1961 Hawks went unbeaten in nine games, seven of the wins giving them the Fox Valley Catholic title in their first season of conference play. The powerful Hawks averaged 33.6 points a game while holding the opposition to a rate of 4.1.

28 Make Trip

Twenty-eight Hawks will make the trip to Escanaba. They leave at 5:30 p.m. today and stay overnight at Cedar River, Mich.

Coach Gene "Torchy" Clark is satisfied with the progress shown by his team during three weeks of practice but has found that the 1962 edition won't have as much depth as last year's team. The principal rebuilding has been needed at end and tackle.

Xavier has scrimmaged against Marshfield Columbus and Preble, looking especially good against the latter school.

The Hawks have a nucleus of four all-conference returnees — quarterback Dick Wiesner, guard Kelly Kornely, halfback "Rocky" Bleier and center - defensive end Tom Schueppert — and a number of other top players.

Here are the offensive starters who will try to advance Xavier's 13-game, 2-year winning streak tomorrow: Dick Boots and Bob Rammer, ends; Jim Captaine and Floyd Slayton, tackles; Kornely and Jim Pegel, guards; and Schueppert, center; Wiesner, QB; Bleier and "Kip" Whitlinger, halfbacks; and Tom Peeters, fullback.

In the only defensive changes, Boots and Peeters will be replaced by Jim Springer and Mike Kaphingst.

Bleier Moved

Bleier, the team's leading scorer (91 points) as a sophomore, has been moved from right halfback to left half. Whitlinger, the No. 2 quarterback last season, will be at right half. Pete Werner,

Broncos Upset San Diego '11'

Tripucka Paces 30-21 Win in AFL Opener

DENVER (AP) — A Denver Bronco 30-21 victory over the favored San Diego Chargers Friday night got the American Football League off to a lively start in advance of three more games this weekend.

The Boston Patriots will play at the Dallas Texans' ballyard tonight with the rest of the teams competing Sunday. The defending champion Houston Oilers will play the Buffalo Bills in Buffalo and the New York Giants will meet the Oakland Raiders on the West Coast.

Denver's biggest crowd—estimated at 28,000—since the AFL was launched in 1960 thoroughly enjoyed watching the alert Broncos outplay the Chargers with real athority.

Consistent Accuracy

Frank Tripucka's passing and wide-awake defense work by the Broncos spelled the difference. The 34-year-old Notre Dame and pro veteran, getting protection such as he never knew in two previous seasons here, placed the football in his receivers' arms with consistent accuracy.

One of his scoring throws covered 49 yards with Bob Scarpitto running the last 32 yards to the goal line. Tripucka's passing figured in four scoring drives as Denver piled up 384 yards through the air to only 112 for the Chargers.

Along with Trip's season right arm, Gene Mingo's right foot was a big help. Gene kicked three field goals, two of which in the third period were terrific boots of 41 and 53 yards.

Only thievery by Charger defenders kept the score respectable. Claude Gibson ran 35 yards for a touchdown with a stolen Denver pass and in the final quarter Charlie McNeal intercepted one of his five and scampered 40 yards. This ignited a San Diego march, guided by that netted a touchdown on a 15-yard pass to Bob Jackson.

Pastrano Risks Rating, Chance At Title Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Willie Pastrano, the world's second ranked light heavyweight, risks his rating as well as a chance at the National Boxing Association title tonight.

The North Miami Beach fighter will slug it out in a nationally televised bout with Rodolfo Diaz of Argentina. Should Pastrano lose, he forfeits the possibility of a title fight with NBA champion Harold Johnson.

Pastrano has won 56 professional outings, scoring 12 knockouts. He has lost ten fights and fought seven draws.

Diaz scored an upset over Tony Alongi last February in Miami Beach.

Dadian Defends Publinx Crown

GREEN BAY (AP)—Defending champion Archie Dadian of South Milwaukee heads a field of 248 golfers who began play today for the Wisconsin public links golf title at the Brown County course. The event is a 36-hole medal play tournament with the finals Sunday.

Anne Pointing went wading near where the anglers were casting, saw a fish stooped down, picked it up and lugged it ashore. It was a cod weighing 11 pounds, 5 ounces.

Foxes Eliminated From Title Race, Play Finale Tonight

BY RALPH MUELLER
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

The Fox Cities Foxes melted into oblivion Friday night as they went down to 3-1 and 7-1 defeats at the hands of the Clinton C-Sox. The first loss mathematically eliminated them from any hope of winning the Midwest League's second half championship.

The Foxes collected only five blows in the first game and four in the second.

The 1962 Foxes will close out the last chapter of the book tonight in a contest that could produce still some interesting sidelights. It will be another "free night" at Goodland Field with the gates open to all fans.

A limited number of reserved seats will be sold if the fans desire them. Children not accompanied by parents will be admitted to the bleacher sections.

Left hander John Bauer and tall right hander Cisco Carlos sliced the Foxes' bats to shambles for nearly 14 innings last night.

John Scruggs finally appeared to be leading them out of it in the bottom half of the seventh inning of the nightcap. He connected on a long drive and sped around to third to open the inning. He scored on Rex Peters' ground out to break Carlos' shutout.

It was Scruggs bat that helped score the only Foxes' run in the first game, also. He doubled to right and moved to third on Dan Markowski's infield out. Scruggs trotted home on Peter's single.

Clinton scored on a pair of walks and a single by Jon Scott in the second inning of the first game and tallied twice in the sixth on a walk and hits by Max Johnson, Joe Cherry, and Bud Bradford.

The C-Sox collected nine hits in the nightcap with the longest blow being Johnson's home run to

Ernie Davis Gets Hospital Release

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ernie Davis, Cleveland Browns' halfback, was discharged Friday from the National Institutes of Health after entering the hospital 15 days ago suffering from a blood disorder.

NIH officials said the 1961 All America halfback and Heisman Trophy winner from Syracuse is getting along well.

"He does not need the intensive care that he has been getting lately," an official said. "In other words he does not have to be watched as closely as previously indicated."

The officials said he will return to the medical center at some future date for another checkup.

Phillies Beat Braves, 4-3, on Sievers' Homer

Henry Aaron and Adcock Also Hit for Circuit

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee righthander Bob Shaw came within one out Friday night of gaining his 16th victory of the 1962 season.

The veteran hurler had retired two men and his team was leading the Philadelphia Phillies 3-2 in the ninth inning before Shaw gave up a double to pinch hitter Ted Savage.

The hit by Savage was only the fifth off Shaw, but he was lifted in favor of Claude Raymond. Tony Taylor then rapped a sharp single to the outfield and Savage scored the run which tied the score.

Sievers Homers

The Phillies then went on to win the game in the 10th inning on Roy Sievers' home run, 4-3

Dennis Bennett, a young southpaw, limited the Braves to four hits in the first eight innings and Jack Baldschun did not allow a base runner in the next two to get credit for the victory, his 10th against seven defeats. The loser was Raymond, who now is 5-1.

Two of the Braves' small collection of four hits were home runs—by Henry Aaron, his 37th, and by Joe Adcock, his 26th. Aaron's blow was a solo homer while Adcock's four-base hit sent Aaron home in front of him for all of Milwaukee's runs.

The only other hits by the Braves were harmless singles by Mathews and Adcock.

Don Demeter got a home run for the Phillies to give his team an early lead in the second inning. It was his 26th of the year. The Phillies added another in the seventh on a single, a hit batsman, a walk and an infield out.

Warre Spahn was nominated for Milwaukee mound duty today, going against Art Mahaffey. Spahn is 14-12 and Mahaffey 18-11

Yankees Buy Hal Brown From Orioles

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees, seeking pitching help for their annual pennant drive, purchased Hal (Skinny) Brown, a right-handed thrower, from the Baltimore Orioles of the American League Friday for the waiver price of $20,000

Although Brown is 37 and has been in the American League for more than 12 seasons he has a 6-4 won-lost record and an ERA of 4.08. His lifetime major league career record is 77-65.

"Brown will give us excellent mount insurance," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, "because he can be used both as a starter and as a long relief man." This season Brown has appeared in 22 games, 11 of them as a starter. He had been with the Orioles since July 14, 1955.

In addition to buying Brown from the Orioles, the league leaders also called up three members of their Richmond farm team in the International League and ordered them to report to Houk at Detroit on Monday.

The trio is made up of first baseman-outfielder Joe Pepitone, who spent the first half of the season with the Yankees; infielder Jake Gibbs and pitcher Al Downey.

Muzz Patrick Will Coach Ranger Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Muzz Patrick will double in brass as general manager and coach of the New York Rangers of the National Hockey League this season.

Patrick, general manager for several years, named himself coach Friday—succeeding all-star defenseman Doug Harvey who will return as a player only.

"The pressure on a player-coach in the NHL is too rough," Patrick said. "There is no comparison between the pressure on a player-coach and a manager-coach. My job will be much easier."

Perini Says Braves Have Too Many Old Soldiers

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee Braves' owner Lou Perini contends his baseball club has too many old soldiers—but says he is doing something about it.

"Old soldiers never die—they just fade away," Perini said Friday night. "That's what happened to our ball club."

"We are building a new ball club. If we have made any mistakes, it was in not having the foresight in 1957 and 1958 to realize that our players were getting older.

"I am not saying we will be champions next year, but we are on our way. But we have had the second best overall record in the league in the last 10 years and I hope the next 10 years will be just as good."

The news conference was the first held by Perini in Milwaukee this year. He said that he had orders from doctors to stay away from baseball as much as possible because of a heart disorder.

Perini added that he was not concerned with the drop in Milwaukee attendance this year and that the thought never occurred to him to move the club.

The club has been given excellent support in the 10 years it has been here.

"I don't believe we have lost our fans," he said. "We have a half million loss in attendance this year, but I feel it will correct itself. Where could you move a club and get better support than we have had in Milwaukee?"

Perini also expressed confidence in his manager, Birdie Tebbetts, stating that he had "waited 10 years to get him as manager and he has done a good job."

LA Also Nears Heartbreak Mark

Maury Wills Sets NL Stolen Base Record

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Maury Wills and the Los Angeles Dodgers already have broken a couple of National League records this season, and now are in an excellent position to lead the league in broken hearts

They looked tense Friday night and the tense was utter imperfect They committed five errors, blew a 10-1 decision to the Pittsburgh Pirates and finished the night only a half game ahead of the San Francisco Giants

"This was the worst exhibition I've ever seen," said Dodger Manager Walter Alston. His club has committed 12 errors in its last three games and has lost four of its last five.

"But," he said "as badly as we've looked, we're still ahead The thing I'm hoping is that we don't get to fighting ourselves."

The Dodgers, having already broken the league attendance record for one season, drew 36,368 Friday night and ran their home attendance total to 2,324,140. With 10 home dates remaining they must draw an average of 29,649 to surpass Cleveland's major league record of 2,620,627, set in 1948.

Friday night's crowd would have been in for an evening of unalloyed agony if it hadn't been for Wills. The 160-pound Dodger shortstop broke the 51-year-old National League record for most stolen bases in one season by pulling four steals, giving him 82 for the year. The record was 80 Bob Bescher of Cincinnati set it in 1911.

Wills now must be given at least an outside chance of equalling the modern major league record of 96, established by Ty Cobb of Detroit in 1915. The Dodgers have 20 games to play.

Wills, who had never before stolen four bases in one game, smaled in the first inning and tied Bescher's record by stealing second and third. He and Jim Gilham, who had walked, then attempted a double steal with two out But Maury was thrown out at the plate

Wills walked in the third and broke the record by stealing second He got on base in the sixth with another single and again stole second.

Richardson Duels Chuck McKinley

Emerson Beats Sangster in Five Sets, Meets Andy Lloyd, 20

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)— You'd think a 20-year-old collegian who held a racket for the first time just five years ago would be shivering in his timbers at the thought of meeting Roy Emerson, the defending champion, in the National Tennis Championships.

Not so Andy Lloyd, a handsome blond who hopes to enter Trinity University in Texas next semester. He had a date with Emerson, the feared Australian, in the quarter-final round today.

"Here's how I figure it," said Lloyd. "The only way to play is to go at it point-by-point. Play for every point and don worry about each game or set. That's how I'll play against Emerson.

"And I'll tell you something else: I won't be shaky. Last year, Rod Laver (seeded No. 1 and Emerson's Davis Cup teammate) beat me in the third round in straight sets. I was mighty shaky, but not this time."

Least Likely

Lloyd, a member of the Junior Davis Cup squad, whipped Finland's Reino Nyyssoenen, 9-7, 6-3, 6-4 Friday to make the quarters. Of the eight players at the round, he was by far the least likely to make it

Here then is how the quarter-finals line up:

Lloyd vs. Emerson.

Hamilton Richardson, Dallas, Tex., vs. Chuck McKinley, St. Ann, Mo.

Laver vs. winner of match between Frank Froehling, Coral Gables, Fla., seeded No. 8, and Ron Holmberg, West Point, N.Y. The match was called by darkness with Froehling ahead, 8-10, 7-5, 6-4.

Rafael Osuna, Mexico, seeded No. 4, vs. Gordon Forbes, South Africa.

Lloyd must have been encouraged by the trouble Emerson had with Mike Sangster of England. The Aussie finally won, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 9-11, 6-1, but he had a fearful time handling Sangster's booming service for four sets.

Richardson, 29, eliminated 39-year-old Vic Seixas, 12-10, 7-5, 4-6, 6-1. McKinley had no trouble with Jan Leschley of Denmark, 6-0, 6-3, 7-5 Laver took quick care of Antonio Palafox of Mexico, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2. Osuna clobbered Jaidip Mukerjai of India, 6-2, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, and Forbes swept past Billy Knight of England, 4-6, 5-7, 6-4, 11-9, 6-4.

In the women's division, the quarter-finals shape up this way:

Margaret Smith, Australia, seeded No. 1, vs. Mrs. Sandra Reynolds Price, South Africa, seeded No. 8.

Maria Bueno, Brazil, seeded No. 3, vs Donna Floyd, Arlington, Va.

Vicky Palmer, Phoenix, Ariz., vs. Gwyneth Thomas, Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Mrs. Vera Sukova, Czechoslovakia, seeded No 4, vs. Darlene Hard, Long Beach, Calif., seeded No. 5.

Miss Smith and Miss Gueno gained their spots Thursday. Friday, Mrs Reynolds defeated Jane Albert of Pebble Beach, Calif., 6-3, 6-3; Miss Floyd downed seventh-seeded Lesley Turner of Australia, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5; Miss Palmer trounced Pauline Roberts of England, 6-1, 6-2; Miss Thomas turned back Margot Dittmeyer of Germany, 6-1, 6-3, Mrs. Sukova halted Carol Hanks of St. Louis, 6-4, 6-4 and Miss Hard turned back Mrs. Dorothy Knode of Forest Hills, 6-8, 6-2, 6-2.

World Series Opens Oct. 3 In NL Park

4 Teams Get Permission to Print Tickets

NEW YORK (AP)—Four teams, two in each league, had authorization today to print tickets for the 1962 World Series, which will start in the home park of the National League pennant winner on Wednesday, Oct. 3.

Commissioner Ford Frick, in announcing the starting date, authorized the New York Yankees and Minnesota Twins of the American League, and the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants of the National League to print Series tickets.

The four teams are running 1-2 in their respective leagues, with a little over three weeks of the season remaining.

The Los Angeles Angels in the American League, and the Cincinnati Reds and the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National, also were represented at an all-day meeting to make arrangements for the Series.

Frick said the other clubs would be given authorization to prepare tickets if the races tightened.

Record for Travel

The second game of the Series will also be played in the National League park, on Oct. 4, with the next day reserved for travel. The third, fourth and fifth games will be played in the American League city, on Oct. 6, 7 and 8. If the sixth and seventh games are necessary in the best-of-7 series, there will be another open date Oct. 9, with play resuming in the National League park on Oct 10 and 11.

Should the two Los Angeles clubs become Series opponents, there will be no open dates, Frick said.

The commissioner also announced an increase in ticket prices with box seats for the coming games at $12 each, reserved seats $8, open stand reserved seats $4, bleachers $2 and standing room $4

All the prices are tax inclusive. Boxes and reserved seats last year were $10 and $7, with taxes added.

Hilbert Wins In Little 9 Grid Debut

Tops Reedsville On First-Half Scores, 14 to 0

REEDSVILLE — Hilbert High School made a successful Little Nine Conference football debut by scoring a 14-0 win over Reedsville Friday afternoon.

Lyle Roehrig and Jerry Thiel scored first half touchdowns, and the Wolves made their lead stand up through an evenly-played second half.

In the first quarter, Roehrig climaxed a 60-yard drive with a 5-yard off-tackle run. He also carried for the extra point. Thiel caught a 15-yard scoring pass in the second quarter and grabbed another toss for the PAT. The TD march went 70 yards.

Reedsville drove to the Hilbert 25 in the third quarter, only to fumble. And, the Panthers were on the Hilbert 20 when time ran out. Reedsville's longest gainer of the day was 25-yard pass from Dick Diener to Vic Rameker. Fullback Wayne Dirkman ran for 15 yards from scrimmage.

Motorcycle Course Claims Fourth Victim

DOUGLAS, Isle of Man (AP)—The twisting, mountainous motorcycling circuit around the Isle of Man claimed its fourth racing victim in less than a week Thursday.

Keith Gawler, a 22-year-old British optical scientist, was thrown from his machine on a second trip over the course in preparation for the Senior Manx Grand Prix. Three riders were killed in last weekend's Junior Manx Grand Prix.

in his last 21 games, has 20 games in which to try for Cobb's record. He now is fourth on the all-time list behind Cobb's 96 for Detroit in 1915, the 88 pilfered by Clyde Milan of Washington in 1912 and Cobb's 83 in 1911.

The Giants went ahead to stay in the fifth with two runs on a single by Pagan and an error on the play, Sanford's bunt single, a sacrifice fly by Harvey Kuenn and Willie Mays' double. Alou's bases-empty homer in the seventh turned out to be the decisive run when George Altman, who earlier had hit a two-run homer, drove in two runs with an eighth inning single. Stu Miller preserved the triumph for Sanford.

The Reds sent their see-saw game with the Cards into extra innings by tying it in the ninth on singles by Jerry Lynch, John Edwards and Le Cardenas. The Cards moved out front in the 10th, but the Reds again tied on on Frank Robinson's 34th homer. Then, in the 11th, Eddie Kasko led off for the Reds with a single and Pinson followed with the game-winning hit. The victory went to Dave Sisler (3-3) with Curt Simmons (8-9) charged with the defeat.

The Colts used two-out run-producing singles by Johnny Temple and Jim Pendleton to snap a 2-2 tie in the seventh inning and beat the Mets. Jim Golden (6-11) was the winner. Al Jackson (8-18), supported by only four hits, was the loser.

Olkiewicz Scores 4 Touchdowns Against Shiocton

OMRO — Senior fullback Bob Olkiewicz scored 27 points as Omro romped to a 39-6 win over Shiocton here Friday night. The game was the Little Nine Conference opener for both schools.

Shiocton scored its lone touchdown just before the first half ended. The TD came on a spectacular 65-yard runback of a kick by halfback Gene Conradt. Shiocton's try for the PAT was blocked.

The rest of the game belonged to Omro. A combination of speed and elusiveness, the short but stocky Olkiewicz scored four touchdowns and made good on three of six PAT attempts.

Olkiewicz's touchdowns came via a 4-yard plunge in the first quarter, a 6-yard sneak in the second quarter, a 25-yard runback of a pass interception, also in the second quarter, and a 7-yard dash in the third quarter.

Omro's remaining points were scored by halfback Bob Lee and quarterback Ron Bieber, Lee scoring on a 3-yard plunge in the third quarter, and Bieber adding a TD on a 1-yard sneak in the final period.

Lee Grosscup Signed by Titans

OAKLAND, Calif (AP) — Quarterback Lee Grosscup, a former University of Utah star and reserve with the New York Giants and Minnesota Vikings, signed Friday with the New York Titans of the American Football League.

Coach Clyde (Bulldog) Turner announced signing the 25-year-old passer. He will not play against the Oakland Raiders here Sunday but Turner said he should see action next week.

Grosscup was traded to the Vikings by the Giants in a National Football League exchange a month ago and was released by the Minnesota team earlier this week.

Browns Edge Bears, Keep Record Perfect

BY JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Lions may have landed a Plum in their multi-player deal with Cleveland but it still looks as if the prize apple belongs to the Browns.

The Browns, in trading quarterback Milt Plum and two other top players to Detroit, got quarterback Jim Ninowski and a pair of regulars in return during the off-season, and both have proven great bargains.

But Ninowski has drawn the first edge, leading the Browns to a 5-0 exhibition mark after he helped move them to a 28-24 victory Friday night over the winless (0-5) Chicago Bears.

Plum steered the Lions to a 14-0 victory over St. Louis in the League exhibition to give Detroit a 4-1 exhibition record. But the loss was at the hands of Cleveland and Ninowski in the first preseason game for both teams They do not meet again during the regular season.

More exhibition activity is on tap today, with the Browns' two arch rivals for Eastern Conference supremacy, New York and Philadelphia, meeting at Princeton's Palmer Stadium this afternoon. This weekend marks the last pre-season tuneup for all clubs, with the season opening Sept. 16.

Two Georgia Games

Tonight, a pair of exhibitions are scheduled in Georgia, with Dallas facing the Minnesota Vikings in Atlanta and the Green Bay Packers meeting Washington in Columbus. The Los Angeles Rams play host to San Francisco in another night game Baltimore visits Pittsburgh Sunday afternoon.

Ninowski tossed a 13-yard pass to rookie end Gary Collins midway in the final period Friday night to get the Browns' victory He also had a 5-yard TD toss to Rich Kreitling for a 21-10 halftime lead that was almost forgotten when the Bears' Willie Gallimore and Charlie Bivins scored second half touchdowns for a 24-21 lead.

Ninoski had a strong supporting cast, as rookie halfback Ernie Green tossed a 29-yard TD pass to Ray Renfro and fullback Jimmy Brown scored on a 5-yard burst. Green, obtained only a month ago from Green Bay, outrushed Brown 38-34 in the first half.

Plum, who connected on 20 of 40 passes in the Lions' 19-14 victory over the Cardinals a week ago, hit five of six in leading the first touchdown march early in the second half. The payoff was a 12-yarder to Jim Gibbons. Five minutes later, defensive halfback Dick (Night Train) Lane grabbed Prentice Gautt's fumbie and sped 72 yards for the Lions second score.

Plum completed half of his 26 passing attempts for 131 yards, while Sam (The Rifle) Etcheverry, who hit 14 ofr 26 last week, hit in 18 of 33 for 133 yards. But the losses totalling 66 yards on other passing attempts.

the leading ground gainer, was the only regular 1961 backfield-man lost.

Ranking second and third, respectively, in rushing were Bleier and Peeters. Bleier averaged a hefty 9.8 yards a carry and also intercepted nine passes — the team's high — from his linebacking post. Peeters, the heaviest regular, at 215, was the team's most frequently used ball carrier in '61.

Wiesner, a heady quarterback, was second in scoring, with 57 points and completed 24 of 43 passes (seven of them going for TDs.)

Bleier scored twice and Wiesner once against Escanaba last year. Peeters led the rushers, with 60 yards in 15 carries. Bleier had 44 yards in 12 tries, and Wiesner 36 in eight.

Escanaba, which employs a Michigan State-type winged-T, has eight lettermen back. They are halfbacks Pete Fregetto and John Frenn; fullback Gary Severinson; tackles Jim Villeneue, Bob Stemac and Bob LeMire; and guards Dick DeGrande and Mike Gorenchan.

Fregetto, an outstanding 190-pounder, has been on the injured list, and his availability is not certain.

The Holy Name attack is run by quarterback Jim Berish, whose 30-yard pass to end Jim Roman set up the team's only score in last week's opener.

Southern Door Varsity Beats St. Mary JVs

MENASHA — Southern Door (Brussels) High School scored 19 points in the second half on its way to a 25-0 triumph over the St. Mary jayvees here Friday afternoon.

The winners scored first in the initial quarter on a half yard sneak by quarterback Dick Neveau after taking over on the 17 following a recovered Zephyr fumble.

The new school tallied early in the third quarter on a 38-yard run by Dan Neinhaus. John Birmingham plunged over the extra point.

On the first play of the final period, Neveau and Reggie Destree collaborated on a 65-yard pass play for a score. The visitors closed their scoring late in the game on a 7-yard run by Ron VanderTie.

Twice, St. Mary recovered fumbled punts deep in Door territory but was stopped cold.

Suns Win Pennant

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The Jacksonville Suns scored four runs in the ninth inning Friday night and clinched the International League pennant with an 8-7 victory over the Richmond Virginians.

Wrightstown Wins Opener

Fourth-Period Touchdown Beats Hortonville, 7-0

WRIGHTSTOWN — The Wrightstown High School football team beat Hortonville, 7-0, in the Little Nine Conference opener for both teams Friday afternoon.

The Tigers broke up a hard-fought defensive duel early in the fourth quarter after recovering a fumble. Bill Kussow recovered the Polar Bear fumble on the Hortonville 35.

Right-halfback John Lamers capped a 9-play march by scoring through the middle from the 2-yard line. Fullback Bobby Gerend ran the extra point.

Wrightstown had a second-period touchdown (4-yard run by Kussow) called back because of an off-side penalty. The Tigers then lost the ball on downs.

In the third quarter, the Polar Bears made their closest penetration — to near the Wrightstown 20 — but an interception ended the threat.

Larry Lenz Hits 601 Series in Industrial Loop

Roger Huth smacked a 225 game, and Larry Lenz pounded a 601 series to share honors in the Inudstrial League at Hahn's Lanes Wednesday. Huth had a 561 series.

Riverside Paper was the only team to sweep all three games and moved into the sole league lead.

Other honor scores included Glen Rohm, 590; Roger Brandt, 580; Loren Lillge, 569 and Erv Feldhahn, 561.

Outagamie's Feature Won By Bessette

Glen Bessette captured the feature race on the Outagamie Speedway program Thursday night.

Bessette finished ahead of Clyde Schumacher and Manitowoc's Buck Wagner.

Lloyd Moder won the first heat, with Merlin Diedrick finishing second. Both drivers are from Appleton.

Gibson and Schroeder were 1-2 in the second heat, Navarino's Lyle Dieml took the third heat. Roland Kanneman was second in the third heat.

Bessette topped Appleton's Don Boettcher in the final heat.

Yankees Rally for 5-4 Win to Retain 3-Game Margin

Twins Beat Detroit; Angels Edge Orioles in 10 Innings

BY BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

In 1927 they called it "5 o'clock lightning."

In this era of the night game, perhaps it would be more accurate to dub it "10 o'clock lightning."

Regardless of what it's called, the formula used by New York Yankee Manager Ralph Houk today and the one used by Miller Huggins 35 years ago are the same:

Just keep sending 'em up there and pretty soon someone's going to pop one.

Elston Howard, Bill Skowron and Tony Kubek did the job Friday night, each popping a home run as the Yanks stormed from behind for a 5-4 verdict over the Boston Red Sox.

It left New York three games up on Minnesota, 4½ ahead of the Los Angeles Angels and one game closer to wrapping up the Yankees' 12th American League pennant in 14 years.

Twins, Angels Win

The Twins and Angels kept pace, Minnesota taking Detroit 6-4 and the Angels outlasting Baltimore 5-4 in 10 innings. But with the season heading toward the windup, every day they fail to gain on New York is just that day lost.

Cleveland rallied for a 2-1 triumph over Kansas City and Washington whipped the Chicago White Sox 7-2 in the others.

It was in 1927, the year Babe Ruth hit 60 home runs and Lou Gehrig 47, that the "5 o'clock lightning" tag was put on Huggins' Yankees. It referred to their laste-inning bombardments, built on homers, that so often destroyed an opponent's lead.

That was the old old story Friday night. Boston's 6-foot-3 right-hander, Gene Conley, was working on a five-hitter, had a 3-2 lead and had retired 15 men in order when the lightning struck in the seventh inning.

Howard Homers

Howard, who had homered earlier in the game, led off with a single and scored ahead of Skowron when the Yank first baseman poled his 20th homer into the right field stands. Two outs later Kubek parked one in almost the same spot and the Yanks had a 5-3 lead, good enough to stand off an eighth-inning Boston rally.

Minnesota scored the winning run on an obstruction ruling in beating Detroit for the 11th time in 13 meetings. The Twins trailed 4-3 in the sixth. Rich Rollins singled home winning pitcher Jim Kaat with the tying run and moved Vic Power to second. Power advanced when Al Kaline's throw from right field skipped past third base. Rounding third, Power collided with third baseman Steve Boros, and was beaten to the plate by Phil Regan's throw of the retrieved ball.

Plate umpire Ed Runge ruled Boros had obstructed Power, however, and allowed the go-ahead run. Al Kaline hit his 25th homer and Chico Fernandez his 18th for the Tigers.

Los Angeles hustled in two runs in the top of the 10th on a double by Leon Wagner, a sacrifice bunt on which Bob Rodgers was safe at first, a sacrifice fly and a single by George Thomas.

But the Orioles got one back in the bottom of the 10th on a double by Russ Snyder and Brooks Robinson's single before Ted Bowsfield and Tom Morgan came on to put out the fire.

Pete Ramos of the Indians allowed only two hits in beating Kansas City. The Indians got their two runs on a bases-loaded single by Bubba Phillips and a bases-loaded walk to Jerry Kindall in the ninth.

Washington knocked out Eddie Fisher in the fourth and continued their 13-hit attack against four relief men in the easy triumph over Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schoenike Pause for a rest after dragging in another prize 10 point buck which John had taken last fall. This was John's number 18 taken in Wisconsin with his bow. Their Avion Sportsman trailer, gives them all the comforts of home wherever they wish to camp.

John Schoenike started an archery business in his basement in 1940, the year he bagged his first 8-point buck. Since 1945, his Clintonville store, operating under the name of the Stalker Archery Company, has been classified as one of the most complete archery stores in Midwest.

Having an archery range permits John to teach all beginners how to shoot and to handle the equipment properly. He has instructed over a thousand beginners. He is also qualified to help customers pick the proper weight and length bow and the proper length and spined arrows for each individual.

Stalker Archery has at this time a good selection of discontinued models at exceptionally low prices for both beginners and experienced archers.

Stalker also carries the Avion Travel Trailer, the Sportsman model of which is shown in the above picture. He said there are a few new 1960 models on hand at substantial saving. Schoenike reminds readers that September and October are two of the most beautiful months for traveling, sightseeing and hunting.

Readers may see these trailers at the Stalker Archery Company on Highway 45 on the west side of Clintonville. Come in, too, and try out some of the new archery equipment, the Stalker firm invites.

Wall Paint Names Excite Curiosity

New colors for walls, with names as appealing as the colors themselves, are now appearing in paint stores throughout the Fox Cities area.

Typical of the newcomers to the homemaker's decorating palette are Trillium, Celery and Denim, available in both a flat wall paint and a subdued lustre enamel.

Chuck Shannon, manager of the Sherwin-Williams branch at 302 E. College Ave, describes Trillium as "a subtle tint of the highly popular lilac. It is an especially versatile color, for it may be used in combination with vibrant hues to create drama and excitement, with pastel tints to achieve quiet dignity, or with medium tones to provide the flavor of tradition."

Celery Is Different

According to Shannon, "Celery is quite a different kind of color. A neutral shade with a quiet undertone of green, it works happily as a foil for the whole range of available fabrics and furnishings."

As its name implies, Denim is a "homespun color," Shannon observes. "A delicate blue, it is readily compatible with yellows and reds, and is a pleasant showoff when used with white. Somewhat surprisingly, it can also be used effectively with rich greens to create truly exotic effects."

Other new colors now being introduced carry such intriguing names as: Ebb Tide, Kangaroo, Bayleaf, Mill Pond, Gladiator and Verbena. These, too, are offered in Super Kem-Tone, the latex wall paint, and Kem-Glo, the alkyd enamel.

"Because matching colors are available in both types of finishes, homemakers can paint both walls and woodwork in identical colors," Shannon explains. "Latex paint is best suited for walls, while alkyd enamel is ideal for woodwork. The latter is also recommended for kitchen and bathroom walls because of its superior resistance to grease, steam and other household hazards."

NFO Mustering Strength On Mid-Wisconsin Farms

Organization Claims 'Avalanche' Growth of Support for Boycott

Mid - Wisconsin strength, described as "of avalanche proportions," is being mustered by the National Farmers Organization (NFO) in support of its "withholding" action calculated to bring about guaranteed farm prices.

NFO meetings have been held in more than a dozen Waushara-Waupaca-Winnebago rural towns and villages, focusing community attention anew on farm problems and difficulties. Other meetings are scheduled as the militant campaign fingers out to areas heretofore untouched by the NFO boycott.

Horn - sounding caravans of farm trucks and cars, emblazoned with NFO signs and banners, have been making the rounds of the area, proclaiming the organization's purpose to hold livestock from the market and increase farm prices.

Bitter Opponents

There are staunch hold-outs and bitter opponents. These farmers characterize the movement as a union-style action, which they find entirely unacceptable.

NFO's boycott is reminiscent of the famed milk strike of the 1930's, led by Shiocton's Walter Singler and his milk-dumping dairymen.

The ultimate aim of the NFO is to get contracts with meat packers and food processors for a definite amount of farm products for a definite price. Spokesmen claim that if farmers are protected by contracts won through collective bargaining, there would be a marked cut in the billions of tax money doled out in farm subsidy payments.

May Extend To Milk

As a first step, NFO members hereabouts have pledged to hold back cattle, veal, hogs and sheep, and certain grains from the market. The pinch has been felt, in varying degrees, by packers and meat processors. The current boycott may eventually extend to milk, but that's not now a part of the organization's tactics.

Typical of the sweeping gains in NFO membership and "withholding" action is the Waushara County unit.

Its post-Labor Day week membership stood at 75 dues-payers, up from a handful on the rolls early in the spring.

"And we have many sympathizers who haven't actually cast their lots with us," says Fred Anderson Jr., Pine River, member of the county NFO board of managers.

'Not A Strike'

"It's a holding action, not a strike," Anderson explains, "and we are refusing to sell cattle, calves, hogs, sheep, corn and soybeans until prices go up to where we want them.

"The national goal is a 16 per cent increase in cattle prices and a 57 per cent increase in corn prices to farmers. We are simply asking for price protection through contracts, and seeking this throughout hold-out tactics.

"It should be pointed out and emphasized," Anderson continued, "that 25 per cent of the livestock going to market from Wisconsin comes from dairy farms, the milch cows sold to the packers.

"So, dairy farmers as well as beef cattlemen can play a major role in the drive to rehabilitate farm prices. And then there are the thousands of young calves marketed by dairymen to be withheld."

Long Fight

NFO Director Anderson said he and other members were currently holding back on shipping No. 1 quality livestock to market and contended the farmers so pledged would "dig in" for a long fight if necessary to gain their ends.

"Right now, it is not a part of our NFO policy, but there is the possibility that the action will be extended to include milk, but that's an issue for higher consideration," he pointed out.

"Market quotations and curtailment of working staffs at a number of packing plants indicate the early effectiveness of our action, and we have the highest hopes for eventual all-out success."

Oppose 'Direct Action'

Anderson said that opposition to the NFO tactics came in the main from those against what they call the "direct action" on the part of the organization. But with the groundswell of interest evidenced by what he pointed out as the avalanching membership gains, he feels that further gains are certain.

Raymond Keck Berlin, is president of the county farm organization; Elwin Anderson, rural Pine River, vice president; James Young, Berlin, secretary, and William Hackney, Poy Sippi, treasurer.

As an auxiliary to its boycott, the NFO is venting its ire at the Commit'ee for Economic Development (CED). In a recent report, the CED suggested that two million farmers be moved off the land. It contended the number of farms should be reduced by a third during the next five years.

NFO members don't hold with this recommendation, and are vocal about the matter.

Stock Supplies Low in Midwest; Meat Prices Up

CORNING, Iowa (AP)—Supplies of slaughter livestock in the Midwest were running low today and retail meat prices already were on the increase during a buildup of the National Farmers Organization's withholding action.

After a full week of NFO action to keep beef, hogs and sheep off the market until processors agree to price contracts, packinghouse plants in Iowa and some neighboring states were laying off workers because of the lack of supplies.

There were no reports of retail counters running out of fresh meat, but some stores in Des Moines, Kansas City, Chicago and Louisville boosted prices from 5 to 10 cents a pound. Increases of 10 to 15 cents a pound for some cuts appeared possible next week.

Price Rise Expected

The U.S. Department of Agricultur in Chicago also said that the lag in livestock receipts this week may cause prices to go up next week.

NFO national headquarters here said that price adjustments since Labor Day were an indication of the effectiveness of its holding action but that retail boosts were not necessarily caused by it.

Sensitive to possible consumer reaction, NFO officials said they were checking to see if price rises were justified.

President's Statement

National president Oren Lee Staley was in Minnesota Friday night for farmer meetings and was expected back today. Headquarters said a statement would be forthcoming after his return.

More than 600 employes, mostly in hog processing departments, have been laid off by Iowa packing plants, Rath at Waterloo, Morrell at Ottumwa and Decker, an Armour subsidiary, at Mason City. Dubuque (Iowa) Packing Co. also ordered a cutback.

Armour & Sons said 175 were being laid off at Kansas City. Wilson & Co. said some workers in hog departments of its plants at Omaha, Neb., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Minneapolis, Minn., were being laid off. Wilson did not provide any total figures.

Meat Prices Up

Herbet Wiggs, manager of the Swift & Co. plant at Kansas City, said that retail meat prices normally decline at this time but boosts of four cents a pound on choice beef and eight cents a pound on pork loins have occurred in the past week.

Reports from various sources indicated that meat price rises have been spotty, especially in supermarkets. Some Des Moines supermarkets reported fresh meat up 5 to 10 cents a pound and other stores of the same type said they were holding the line for the time.

The terminal market and buying stations have been paying more for livestock this week. Chain store representatives at Chicago said livestock bought at the stockyards there this week already has begun arriving at retail stores.

Talks Begin On New Bank For Appleton

The controller of currency in Washington, D.C., has given preliminary approval for a "Valley National Bank" somewhere in the Appleton area.

Harold C. Adams, president of Appleton's First National Bank who was listed as correspondent in the notification published in Washington, said he has received no such notice, but admits some telephone conversations with Washington have taken place in what he termed a "probing action."

There are no plans prepared, no corporation formed, no site selected and there has been no formal application for approval of a new bank in this area, Adams said.

Adams acknowledged there has been some discussion of such a project, but he said that talks are in the very early stages and no decisions have been made, not even the basic one of deciding to establish another bank. He says it is premature to reveal the names of those involved in the talks.

Winchester Starts First Blacktopping

Preparatory Reconstruction Of Town Roads Cost $51,000

WINCHESTER — Town of Winchester residents have authorized the first blacktopping of town roads and this week began a 1½-mile program of hot-mix bituminous concrete installation with crews from Courtney and Plummer, Inc., doing the work.

Town Chairman Gordon Hanson stated that official town records and financial reports show that the town has been engaged in reconstruction projects on various town roads in the last 15 years.

There is only one town road at the present time that is in need of major reconstruction but this has been delayed because of the future of a presently operating mason sand pit over which this road passes for about a half mile.

At the town meeting last April it was voted that property owners with long driveways and willing to furnish three rods of land in width for town road purposes may upon petition have the town reconstruct these roads and place them on the town system. This has been accomplished except for two driveways for which petitions have not been received.

Previous Expenses

Hanson said the town has spared no material or labor to put the roads in suitable condition for blacktopping. Brush has been cleared, drainage improved and the required width established. In the last 15 years more than $51,000 has been spent for reconstruction alone, exclusive of rock surfacing and dust prevention. Nearly $10,000 was spent for culverts to replace the old ones. This work was done by Winnebago County highway department crews and crews and equipment.

This has resulted in nearly 8½ miles of roads reconstructed to a four-rod width and approximately 5½ miles of driveways at a three-rod width for easier snow plowing and right-of-way mowing.

Town of Winchester has 28.47 miles of town roads, according to the State Highway Commission, Hanson indicated. The town is one of only two in Winnebago County that clears all the long driveways of snow without charge, although this sometimes presents a problem, he said.

The extent of blacktopping in the future depends upon action taken by residents at the annual town meetings.

City Clerk Says Total Exceeds That Of April by 361

There are 22,556 Appleton residents registered to vote in Tuesday's primary election.

In making the announcement today, City Clerk Elden Broehm said the total exceeds that for the April election by 361.

Registration totals for recent elections have been: September, 1960, 21,303 registered; November, 1960, 24,395; April, 1961, 22,257; and April, 1962, 22,195.

139 Servicemen

Included among the registered voters for next week's election are 139 servicemen.

Broehm said 90 absentee ballots have been cast to date. He reminded his office will have special hours for that purpose tonight from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon.

Registered voters who have a valid reason for not being able to go to the polls Tuesday can obtain and cast their ballots until Saturday noon, which is also the deadline for sending in written requests for absentee ballots.

Paper Firms Try to Amend Trade Bill

Ask State Representatives for Support on Freer Bargaining

The Wisconsin Paper Industry today urged Wisconsin congressmen to join in efforts to permit freer trade in pulp and paper by amending the administration's trade bill.

In letters to United States Senators and Representatives from Wisconsin, George E. Mackin, general chairman of the Wisconsin Paper Industry Information Service, called attention to a recent letter from Rep. Reuss, D-Wis. to President Kennedy. The letter asked the President to overrule State Department objections to a proposed amendment which would authorize the chief executive to bargain with West European countries for the elimination of all tariffs.

In its present form, Reuss said, the measure would permit such zero bargaining only if present membership of the Common Market is expanded. Reuss said the change is urgently needed now. He said the pulp and paper industry faces rising tariffs in Western Europe while competitors in other paper producing countries enjoy discriminatory advantages.

The letter from Mackin, who also is vice president of Green Bay Packaging Inc. Paper Mill Division, asked the Wisconsin senators and representatives to take similar stands "on behalf of one of our home state's most important industries." The letter added:

"Wisconsin is the nation's leading papermaking state and, as such, we have a high stake in expansion of world pulp and paper trade. The Fox and Wisconsin river valleys, and our other state producing centers, are the heart of papermaking in this country. We employ more than 42,000 workers directly with a payroll of more than $250 million yearly.

Thousands of others have jobs in supporting and allied industries such as pulpwood production and the manufacture of paper machinery. Pulpwood purchases in Wisconsin alone amount to more than $15,000,000 yearly. Our annual sales of more than $850 million, our annual production of 3 1-3 million tons and our total investment figure of more than $650 million top all other of the 45 papermaking states.

"We are willing to compete with pulp and paper manufactur-

Turn Ordinary Hike Into Hike for Pretty Rocks

BY CAPPY DICK

Stone collecting is a good hobby First of all, you can turn your hikes into searches for interesting and unusual specimens Then, you can learn facts about each kind of stone you collect by referring to a good dictionary an encyclopedia and books to be found in the public library

If you take along a small hammer when you go on your geology hikes to look for specimens, you can break some of the stones to find out what they look like inside Often stones which are drab and uninteresting on the ground turn out to be beautiful when you break them open to see the insides

A dozen or more stones may be mounted and made into a paper weight.

There are many, many kinds of stones and minerals Here are just a few of the common names you may want to find for your collection Limestone, flint, fledspar granite, pyrite (which is sometimes called 'fool's gold', quartz, sandstone, shale, slate and agate

When you examine the stones, note the color of each one (is it green red, white, gray, yellow?), its luster (is it shiny, dull, pearllike, sparkly?), its hardness (can you scrape off part of the surface with a knife or even with your fingernail?), its surface feeling (does it feel rough, smooth oily, glassy, porous?) and how it breaks (does it break into thin slabs, in splinters or across the stone?)

When you have found and identified two or three dozen stones, make a paperweight of them. Mold a handful of putty to a suitable shape (see the picture above) and press the stones down into it just far enough to make them firm.

ers anywhere in the world on a genuinely equal basis. This means there should be matching, identical tariffs, country by country and item by item. For example: If the tariff wall is 4 per cent in the Common Market, it should be 4 per cent here. If it's 0 per cent there (free trade) it should be 0 here. We need truly reciprocal trade agreements, with no discrimination either way.

"Most favored nation concepts also should be modified so that agreements about paper with each country or bloc stand on their own feet, and the so-called "phony controls"—import quotas, exchange and licensing devices, currency restrictions and the like — should be banned.

"Imports into the United States currently carry a comparatively low duty rate in contrast to the substantially higher duties that our exports must surmount in other markets. At the very least, if our products would carry no higher tariffs, regardless of level, than those of Canada and the Scandinavian countries, we feel that we could share liberally in the expected demand growth in Western Europe in the years ahead.

"We hope we will have your support in this undertaking — so vital to Wisconsin's great paper industry."

3 Persons Injured in Car-Truck Collision On U.S. 41 Friday

Three persons were injured in a car-truck collision on U.S. 41 near State 125 Friday afternoon. They were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by Lindy's Ambulance.

Gustave E. Weist, 57, and his wife, Irene, both of Chicago, were treated for injuries and are in good condition today. Weist was injured about the mouth when his denture plate came loose after the impact. His wife is being treated for cuts on the forehead and arm.

The truck driver, James H. Detlor, 55, Plainfield, was treated for cuts to his head and released.

The car being driven by Weist was traveling north on 41 when it collided with Detlor's truck, which was attempting a turn on State 125 from 41.

Court Challenge Faces Wisconsin's Income Tax Withholding Act

Motor Carriers Association and Consolidated Freightways to Sue

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Months of simmering resentment against the state tax department's effort to deduct state income taxes from the wages and salaries of persons who do not live in Wisconsin but earn some income here will flare into a formal court challenge.

The Wisconsin Motor Carriers Association says it will start a court test on the constitutional validity of the state income tax withholding act to the extent that it purports to cover the tax liability of non-residents. It will act in collaboration with Consolidated Freightways Corp. of California, one of many carriers that are involved as employers in the state's tax withholding act enacted a year ago.

The state holds that it is entitled to collect, under the withholding tax, a pro rata share from non-residents who earn a part of their livelihood in Wisconsin, as do some truckers who pass through this state on their inter-state highway runs.

Airline Pilots

The state's collection attempt has also involved non-resident employees of railroads and airlines, as well as salesmen and other itinerant workers. The tax department has held that an airline pilot who flies over Wisconsin, and does not touch ground at any Wisconsin airfield, is liable for the Wisconsin income tax in the ratio that his Wisconsin flight time bears to his total work schedule and earnings.

The state's collection effort is through persuading employers to make the payroll deductions. Some of the companies involved have protested the relatively high accounting costs involved for what are frequently negligible amounts of taxes.

That is the basis of Consolidated's objection, according to industry sources. The nationwide firm is theoretically subject to such withholding laws in other income tax states, but in many of them the collection efforts are only nominal. Wisconsin officials have insisted that they meant to collect from non-residents.

The legal basis for the court action will be the assertion that the Wisconsin tax collection is an unconstitutional restriction upon interstate commerce, which is exclusively within the regulatory control of the national government. If the court action fails, there will be an attempt to get relief from the 1963 legislature.

French Kidney Transplant Successful

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — An apparently successful kidney transplant between non-twins was reported Friday by a French blood specialist. Such transplants are usually made between identical twins.

A housewife, 35, is living on a kidney taken from a 10-month-old baby, without any apparent signs of tissue rejection, Dr. George Mathe, chief of Hematology at the Gusteve Roussy Institute in Paris, said. He indicated the surgery was performed about 10 months ago.

Dr. Mathe said total body irradiation and a powerful anti-cancer drug made the transplant possible.

The woman, who had suffered from a near-fatal renal insufficiency, has had some infections but her transplanted kidney has shown no indication of tissue rejection.

Dr. Mathe, en route to the International Society of Hematology meeting in Mexcio City, said he did not wish to name the woman patient.

'Non-Political' Speech Slated by Robert Kennedy

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has agreed to speak at a testimonial dinner for Democratic Atty. Gen. John F. Reynolds here Oct. 6 and both claim that the rally is non-political.

Reynolds' supporters, however, contend that the $50-a-plate affair has only one purpose—to raise funds for Reynolds' campaign for governor of Wisconsin.

Robert L. Bittner of Green Bay, treasurer to Reynolds' campaign committee, said today he did not want to "contradict Mr. Kennedy" or Reynolds "but I can't imagine for what other purpose the committee would use the money...we certainly wouldn't give it to Mr. Kennedy."

Arson Possible in Cathedral Fire

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Forty teen-agers were guided to safety Friday night as a five-alarm fire destroyed the 65-year-old St. Mary's Roman Catholic Cathedral.

The only injury reported was a cut hand suffered by the Rev. John Heaney as he attempted to enter the rear of the burning building to remove the Blessed Sacrament. He was unsuccessful.

The fire was spotted about 10 p.m. as the teen-agers knelt in the lower floor of the church. Father Heaney said leaders of the group moved them out safely. There was no panic.

Arson investigators went to work immediately. Fire Chief William Murray would not comment on whether the blaze had been set deliberately.

Wiley Votes With Southern Senators, Gov. Nelson Claims

Hunting Arrow Kills 22-Month-Old Boy

ST. GEORGE, Utah (AP) — A 22-month- old boy was killed instantly Friday by a three-pronged steel hunting arrow shot in target practice by a national guardsman.

Sheriff Roy R. Renouf said the arrow hit Glen Ray Nelson in the back of the head. The youngster was the son of Ronald Nelson, a former president of the Dixie Wildlife Association.

Sheriff Renouf said Ellis Hunt, 44, was standing on National Guard property and shooting into several bales of hay in the backyard of the adjoining Nelson property.

One arrow missed the hay, the sheriff said, and hit the boy who was playing with some rocks nearby.

People Don't Act the Way Statistics Say

Number Men Meet To Study Methods of Improving Surveys

BY SAM DAWSON

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — The big job used to be collecting statistics about people. Today it's making the statistics fit the people. They keep on doing things their own way even when the figures have indicated a different trend under way. And often people wonder why the statistics seem to be contrary to their experience.

Statisticians by the hundreds are gathering here today to run their profession through the human computers of their own minds. They are studying how to improve the gathering and interpretation of statistics—all the way from stock market trends to unemployment totals.

And the 122nd annual meeting of the American Statistical Association is taking sidetrips into the fields of getting people to understand statistics—and, especially to stop jumping to conclusions.

The confusion this week over the government's statistics on jobs and the jobless is a case in point.

Employment in August hit a record high. The total of the jobless dropped. And yet the percentage of the labor force out of work rose.

Some say it's all because of women. Others say the seasons seem to be getting out of kilter. Some think the percentage rise in the unemployment rate is all because of the big crop of babies in the war years.

Smaller Drop

The women are credited with the smaller than expected drop in unemployment in August because up to 100,000 were counted as jobless when they were really just waiting to take their first jobs as teachers or new jobs in that profession. This month they switch from the unemployed to the employed side of the ledger.

But this August the labor force got bigger than expected, not only because of the women biding their time but perhaps because all those war babies are growing up and job hunting.

The seasons are viewed askance because they seem to be coming earlier each year. Statisticians take the seasons into account and adjust their figures to fit what they think the seasonal pattern is, or should be. Thus, in June they make allowance for the hordes of students and teachers looking for summer jobs, and therefore technically unemployed. In August the statisticians figure those who did not find jobs got tired of looking and dropped out of the labor force. So unemployment totals should drop.

Seasonal changes also are blamed on the auto industry this time. When the August figures were taken most auto prduction lines were down for model changeover, and the laid-off workers were listed as unemployed. This month most of them should be back on the job.

Detroit keeps changing its model changeover period from year to year and this is very trying to statisticians striving to adjust to previously agreed upon seasonal patterns.

Trucking Firm Earnings Jump to Over $324,000

Central Wisconsin Motor Transport Co. has reported net earnings of $324,403 in the fiscal year ending June 30; earnings in the same period last year were $213,517.

Revenue has climbed from $19,994,286 to $15,794,679 in 1962, according to the company's recent report to stockholders.

The transportation company, which operates in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio and Kentucky, added 72 diesel tractors and 158 40-foot trailers in 1962. The report said that no additional purchases were being planned.

The company's trucks traveled 15,944,000 miles in 1961; this is compared with 4,972,000 miles traveled in 1951.

Campaign for Walstead Not Going Smoothly

Reynolds Worried His Aide May Lose In Primary Voting

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — Leading Democrats are worried about the nomination of a candidate on their ticket for the office of attorney general in the primary elections Tuesday.

The campaign of Elliot Walstead, the deputy attorney general, for the nomination has been largely obscured thus far and there is a growing concern that the result may be the selection of William Evans of Milwaukee by the comparatively few Democratic voters in the nominating election.

The office of attorney general is usually ranked second only to the governorship in the list of state elective offices, for political importance and performance requirements.

Perennial Candidate

Evans is a perennial candidate for state and local offices, who has not yet made a successful campaign.

Walstead is a former chairman of the state party organization and was named deputy by Atty. Gen. John Reynolds last spring with the understanding that he would run to succeed him in the office.

But the campaign for Walstead thus far has not gone well, which accounted for the fact that Reynolds recently ran the risk of being accused of repudiating his party's open primary professions by publicly asking rank and file Democrats to nominate his associate.

Small Democratic Vote

The worry in party circles is that the total Democratic vote Tuesday will be comparatively small because of the superior interest in the Republican gubernatorial nomination contest, and that the Milwaukee Democratic vote turnout will be proportionately more important as a result. Evans is a veteran of local organization politics in Milwaukee and is expected to run reasonably well there against the deputy attorney general.

Reynolds has continued to favor his associate by making announcements from his office under Walstead's name.

Wednesday Walstead announced the opinion of the office interpreting the provisions of the state's anti-secrecy law in governmental affairs as it applied to a La Crosse situation, as a means of providing publicity in the last days of the primary campaign season.

OUT-GUN COMPETITION AT PEAK SEASON THROUGH ADS RUN PRIOR TO BIG BARRAGE

DEAR CY:

My brother and I are co-owners of a garden center. He feels we should advertise throughout the year, increasing it during the peak selling season. I say this is wrong. If we get sales during just a few months, why throw money away when people are buying other things? What we don't spend on advertising during the off months, we can save. I hope you will say you couldn't agree more with me. I'm asking this now, because busy as we are, we are planning to plan ahead.

ALAN H.

DEAR ALAN H.:

This is one time your brother deserves the roses. Steady advertising is an investment in building a business. Advertise throughout the year, and you can outgun competition with stepped up advertising when the buying onslaught begins.

CY

* * *

DEAR CY:

I operate a very small costume jewelry business, employing two part-time women. One works on the stock, and the other helps with correspondence when I need it. They are paid $60 per month, and worth every penny.

My problem is that the man who helps me with my taxes says I should start withholding income tax, and deducting social security for them. This is a real hammer on the head because I have so many details to worry about as it is.

It looks like I will have to make monthly statements to the government on withholding and social security. How can I get out of it?

MANNWEILER

DEAR MANNWEILER:

Your employees can report what you pay them in their own tax returns, and you won't have to file withholding for them. But, there is a big catch to this. If they don't tell Uncle Sam what you have been paying them, he can penalize you. He can demand you, the employer, pay everything they should have paid him through withholding, plus 100 per cent penalty. Have your tax man file these returns quarterly for you. It won't cost much, and could be worth it. If your employees claim no exemptions for income tax withholding, you'll pay the girls $47.72 each month, and the rest of the $60 goes to Washington, together with $1.88 each, representing your part of the social security tax.

* * *

DEAR CY:

About six weeks ago, I got a very good offer from a competing firm. I took it and notified my company immediately. They said they were very sorry to learn I was leaving and would quickly arrange to transfer my accounts to other men. Here it is two weeks later, and they have only acted on one of the 8 accounts I handle. The boss and everyone knows the day I am going to leave, and they know it will be in two weeks as we agreed. When the time arrives, I know they will ask me to stay on until they get organized. Is it all right for me to leave, regardless?

SHERMAN

DEAR SHERMAN:

Yes. But be certain you again remind the proper executive of your scheduled departure. This doesn't mean slam the boss on the neck with a hard boiled memorandum (like you'd like to write). Inject your message tactfully in a routine communique.

CITY OF APPLETON
PROPOSED ORDINANCE

Notice is hereby given that the following proposed ordinance will be considered for passage by the Common Council at a meeting to be held in the Council Chambers in the City Hall on the 5 day of September, 1962 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The Common Council of the City of Appleton do ordain as follows:

AN ORDINANCE REPEALING AND RECREATING SECTION 6.15 (a) (b) (c) OF CHAPTER SIX OF THE GENERAL ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF APPLETON, RELATING TO WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The Common Council of the City of Appleton do ordain:

Section 1. That Section 6.15 (a) (b) (c) of Chapter Six of the General Ordinances of the City of Appleton, relating to weights and measures be repealed and recreated to read as follows:

Section 6.15. Declaration of quantity to be indicated on commodities offered for sale.

(a) No commodity which is marked, tagged or labeled, or for which a sign is displayed, with a selling price based upon price per unit of weight or measure, shall be sold unless the weight or measure of the commodity is conspicuously declared on the commodity, or its tag, label or sign.

(b) Whenever commodities offered for sale shall average less than the amount indicated, they shall be ordered off sale by the Sealer, and he may so mark or tag it as to show it to be illegal. No unreasonable shortage in any commodity, in the same shipment, shall be permitted, even though averages in other packages in the same shipment, delivery or lot compensate for such shortage. Variations above the declared quantity shall not be unreasonably large.

(c) Declarations of quantity shall not read, "when packed", nor any term qualifying a unit of weight, measure or count, for example, "Jumbo", Giant, "Full", or words of similar import that tend to mislead the purchaser as to the amount of the commodity in connection with a declaration of quantity.

Any person guilty of such misrepresentation shall be punished by a fine of not less than $2.00 nor more than $10.00 for each and every item containing such a misrepresentation, and in default thereof, shall be imprisoned in the County Jail for not more than 60 days.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication.

Sales Tax to Be Extended, Rotarians Told

Spending Will Make Move Certain, Says Madison Newsman

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — The extension of the selective state sales tax is probably inevitable because of the heavy pressure of state spending demands, the Green Bay Rotary Club was told this week by a state capitol newspaper correspondent.

John Wyngaard, long-time Madison representative of the Appleton Post-Crescent, said that the minimum increase in the state budget during the next two years is probably $100,000,000, and that the sum cannot be realized through any income tax rate revision that the 1963 legislature will be willing to enact.

School Enrollment

The growth of higher education enrollments is one of the most powerful of the pressures for higher state expenditures, the reporter said.

Wyngaard explained that because of the distribution of the state senate seats that are being filled in the elections this fall, the Republicans are assured of control of the upper house of the legislature as a minimum, and therefore a veto power of the kind they exercised in the 1961 legislative session when Gov. Gaylord Nelson occupied the executive office.

But he added that in the opinion of most professional observers and politicians in both parties the Republicans are starting the fall campaign with the odds in their favor.

The presumption of most political anlysts today is that the Republicans will recapture the executive control of the state government they held from 1938 to 1958 and surrendered in the upset election of Nelson four years ago, he said.

2 Couples Divorced; Wives Charge Cruel, Inhuman Treatment

Raymond Tyler, 32, of Shiocton, and Margaret Tyler, 27, 1819 N. Division St., Appleton, were divorced in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2.

Mrs. Tyler charged cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple was married Oct. 10, 1953 and separated Feb. 24, 1962. No alimony or support was ordered and a property settlement was made.

Stewart Procknow, 21, 716 S. Jackson St., and Nancy Procknow, 20, 237 Harding Ave. were divorced Wednesday in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2. Mrs Procknow charged cruel and inhuman treatment.

The couple was married June 17, 1958 and separated Feb. 24, 1961. Mrs. Procknow was awarded custody of two children for which her former husband was ordered to pay $130 per month support. No alimony was ordered and a property settlement was made.

Bicyclist Fined For 'Trick Riding' On Sidewalk

An 18-year-old Kimberly youth was fined $10 and costs in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2 for "trick riding" his bicycle on an Appleton sidewalk.

According to police, the charge is the closest the city can come to arresting a bicycle rider for riding on the sidewalk.

Roger S. Schimmers, 122 Mary St., was arrested Sunday evening in the 1700 block of S. Oneida Street by two Appleton policemen.

The policemen told the youth to take his bicycle off the sidewalk, but the youth laughed at them. One patrolman issued the youth a ticket and later, a survey of city regulations and ordinances showed the only law on the books was against "trick" riding on sidewalks.

The youth pleaded guilty to the charge when he appeared before Judge Gustave Keller today.

Police said bicycle violators are generally disposed of through a bicycle court held at the Appleton police station on Saturdays. If the violator is over 16 years of age, however, the case can be handled in county courts.

Snow Falls on Montana as Autumn Nears

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traces of autumn peeked into a waning summer today as snow fell on parts of Montana and flash floods and tornadic winds struck Texas.

Most of the Central and Western portions of the nation were overcast and rainy.

Snow was reported in western and central Montana, with one inch recorded in Lewistown. Temperatures plunged to the low and mid 20s in contrast to balmy 60s of the previous day.

Flash Flooding

Northern Texas was pounded with high winds and thunderstorms carrying hail and flash flooding drove hundreds from their homes.

At least 140 families in Tarrant County were evacuated as the West Fork of the Trinity River near Fort Worth overflowed. Relief workers feared many more would flee water-logged homes before the pulsing waters subsided.

The West Fork was rising at the rate of eight inches an hour.

Tornadic Winds

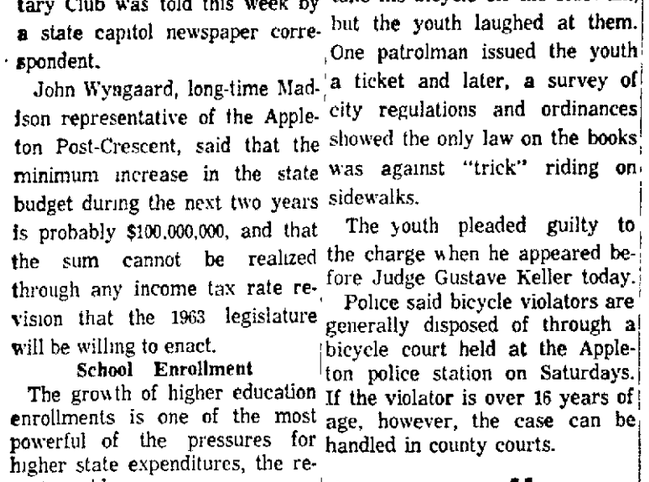
Tornadic winds thundered into Cleburne, south of Fort Worth, destroying a church, wrecking several small buildings and shattering scores of windows. At least one person was injured.

Justin in northern Texas was swamped with 6½ inches of rain in 12 hours and Fort Worth reported 2.40 inches in six hours.

Howling winds up to 60 m.p.h. crashed into Amarillo, Tex., heaping severe thunderstorms and hail over a wide area.

Rain or showers were generally prevalent over a lopsided square from Illinois westward into Idaho and from Texas to the far northern States.

Fair skies covered the majority of both coasts.



Showers and Thundershowers are forecast for the Mississippi valley with some snow flurries expected in the higher elevations of the Rocky Mountains. Cool temperatures are expected in the north from the Lakes region and middle Mississippi valley to the Pacific coast. (AP Wirephoto)

Victims Mostly White, Male, Over 56

Peculiar Patterns Developing in Florida Sleeping Sickness Epidemic

BY FRANK KAREL
Chicago Daily News Service

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Some familiar but puzzling facts have emerged from the sleeping sickness epidemic that has caused 12 deaths in Pinellas County.

Although no clear pattern has been established, battlers against the disease says it is following a line established in previous epidemics elsewhere.

They have found:

All deaths have been confined to persons over 56 years old.

Few Negroes are involved.

More male than female children have been stricken, but more female than male cases have developed among young adults and middle-aged.

The cases haven't been limited to any one section of the county or to any one economic class.

Health officials — federal, state and local — have agreed on an over-all battle strategy of interrupting the disease's march from bird to mosquito to man.

War on Mosquitoes

Most immediate target of the campaign is the relatively small mosquito population of the city and Pinellas County.

Birds are being trapped and examined to nail a source of the encephalitis virus.

This strategy lies in the disease's cycle:

Birds are apparently the host animals for the virus, though reptiles are also suspect.

Mosquitoes bite the birds, picking up the encephalitis virus, and then bite people and infect the human population.

An encephalitis victim can't infect other people. A mosquito can't bite a diseased person and carry it to another.

John A. Mulrenman, state board of health entomology chief, has called on local officials to smash the mosquito population to zero and break this cycle.

3 Types of Carrier

The carriers of encephalitis are three types of fresh-water mosquitoes that breed and live around homes. They're not likely to travel long distances.

City and county workers and equipment pressed into the crash campaign and 40 civic organizations are gearing a neighborhood drive to wipe out mosquito breeding places.

Mulrenman happily announced "the first ray of hope came over the weekend when investigations showed only 3.2 per cent of the homes checked have mosquitoes.

The team of health authorities and local physicians has not been able to do much for the 155 suspected sleeping sickness cases.

There's no direct treatment for encephalitis and it's even very difficult — and sometimes impossible — to prove the illnesses are sleeping sickness.

Asked about a pattern of the cases, county health director Dr. W. C. Ballard said:

"It's about evenly divided, male and female. There's no economics to it, rich and poor."

As to geographic location of the cases in Pinellas County, Dr. Ballard has said, "it's balanced like you threw them on the map — like some one threw a rotten apple into the fan."

Before Dr. Harry C. Oard resigned Aug. 29 as county communicable disease control officer, however, he said the epidemic was following the pattern established in other places of few Negro cases and more cases of male than female children.

As children, Negroes are more exposed to mosquitoes, have mild cases of encephalitis and are immune in later life.

Also fewer Negroes go to the hospital and are counted in the epidemic.

Blood sample studies here indicate approximately 5,000 Pinellas residents are immune to encephalitis because of previously undiagnosed, mild cases.

Elders Hit Hardest

The study showed 68 persons may have had a light case of encephalitis for every one hospitalized in the 1959 and 1961 Pinellas epidemics.

Dr. Ballard said the elderly—and this suncoast area is a retirement haven — are hit hardest because "older people are not able to withstand the disease."

Sleeping sickness has been around this Western shore of Florida for many years, and apparently was first brought in by migrating birds.

But when this latest epidemic broke out there were no migratory fowl in Pinellas County, leading scientists to conclude the local bird population has been seeded with the encephalitis virus.

Federal and state public health workers are now trying to determine what species of birds are carrying the disease.

Further Study

County health director Dr. W. C. Ballard plans to ask the Pinellas Commission for money to build laboratory facilities to study the disease.

Slight cases of the disease may produce no noticeable symptoms other than feeling "slightly off your feet."

A serious case of encephalitis begins with sluggishness, nausea and chills. The victim rapidly moves into the final stages of high fever, severe headaches, mental confusion and sleepiness.

The high fever — 103 to 106 degrees in infants and 102 to 103 in adults — is caused by infection in the central nervous system and brain.

Enrollment of 3,254 at OSC Sets Record

OSHKOSH — The Oshkosh State College enrollment set a new all-time mark Friday and for the first time exceeded 3,000 students.

When the registration lines closed late Friday afternoon, 3,254 students had completed registration.

The record figure is expected to climb higher next week because of late registrations. L. O. Tetzlaff, registrar, said that students are permitted to enroll for a full program until Sept. 18.

Classes at the college begin at 7:40 a.m. on Monday. The semester will end on Jan. 24.

Fall enrollments at the college have shown a steady increase during the past decade. Fall enrollment figures for the last five years show that 1,552 students enrolled in 1957-58, 1,881 in 1958-59, 2,049 in 195960, 2,251 in 1960-61, and 2,842 in 1961-62.

Man Collapses, Dies on Street In Hortonville

Ernest F. Kroeger, 71, route 1, Hortonville, a retired farmer, collapsed and died as he talked with friends on Main Street in Hortonville about 7.45 p.m. Thursday.

Outagamie County Coroner Bernard Kemps said death was caused by a heart condition. Borchardt and Moder Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Kroeger had been retired from his Town of Ellington farm since 1947.

Darboy Poll Hours

DARBOY — Town of Buchanan voters will vote at the fire house for the primary election Tuesday. The polls will be open from 9 a.m. until 6.30 p.m.

Man Admits Being Drunk, Pays Fine

Richard Abel, 66, 221 S. State St., was fined $25 and costs when he pleaded guilty in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2, to being drunk in a public place.

Abel was arrested Tuesday at College Avenue and Outagamie Street where he had fallen after visiting a downtown tavern. Abel was treated for bruises to his face when he was taken to the Appleton police station and held overnight. Abel posted $25 bond after his arrest, but decided to spend eight days in jail and his bond was returned to him.

Eugene A. Begay, 29, 1619 Pauline St., forfeited a $25 bond when he failed to appear in court today to answer charges of being drunk.

Begay was arrested Thursday morning when he was found sleeping in his car in the 1900 block of S. Oneida Street by Appleton police. According to police, the car lights were on and the motor was running. The car was half in a driveway and half on the roadway.

Begay was held in jail until he posted bond.

Six Hurt in 4-Car Crash On U.S. 41

LITTLE CHUTE — Two persons were hospitalized and four received minor injuries in a four-car accident on U.S. 41 and Buchanan Street about 8:25 p.m. Friay.

According to police, a car driven by Mrs. Marie Gilman, 633 S. Commercial St., Neenah, traveling north on 41, stopped in the line of traffic behind a car turning left on Buchanan Street. Also stopped were cars driven by Wilbert G. Proulx, 58, 1310 S. Webster, Green Bay, and Paul Friedel, 61, Beaver Dam.

A car driven by Jeanne M. Denys, 23, 645 Sunset Circle, Green Bay, was unable to stop and hit the Friedel car, causing a chain reaction involving the two other cars.

Friedel and his wife were taken to the Kaukauna Community Hospital, where he is being treated for a sprained shoulder and she for injury to the right hand.

Complaining of bruises and whiplash injuries but not hospitalized were Mrs. Proulx; Andrew C. Coy, 83, Highland, Calif.; Priscilla Blanshan, 5, and Patricia Blanshan, 9, of 537 W. Prospect Ave., Appleton, all passengers in the Proulx vehicle.

New Assessment Notices Sent for 3rd, 5th Wards

NEENAH — Notices advising of new assessments are being sent Friday to property owners in the Third and Fifth Wards and should be received by them Saturday, City Assessor Carlton Williams said today.

These are the first wards for which assessment notices are being sent. Property owners in the Sixth and Seventh Wards will receive their notices early next week.

Informal hearings for the Third and Fifth Ward residents are scheduled for 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sept. 17 and 18. Anyone in those two wards wishing to discuss their new assessments should come at that time, Williams said.

Tavernkeeper Fined $100

CHILTON — Sherwood bowling alley proprietor Walter Michiels has been fined a total of $100 for two tavern violations involving minors.

Michiels pleaded guilty of selling beer to a minor in the bar after the 1 a. m. closing hour, and of permitting minors to loiter in the bar. He appeared Friday before County Judge D. H. Sebora. The fines were $75 for the beer sale and $25 for permitting the loitering.

The arrests resulted from an Aug. 19 raid by Calumet County sheriff's authorities.

X-Ray Radiation Not Worth Worrying About

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Repeatedly I receive letters from people saying, "I had X-rays last year and now the doctor thinks I should have them again. Do you think this amount of radiation will hurt me?"

Dr. Molner

I've been saying "no" steadily. I continue to do so.

But to further alleviate worry, I call attention to a report by Dr. Richard H. Chamberlain, representing the American College of Radiology, to the Atomic Energy Commission.

Earlier estimates of the amount of radiation being absorbed from medical X-ray have been much too high, he said. The estimates had run as high as 150 one-thousandth of a "rad" — a "rad" being a technical measurement for absorption by tissues.

Between 25 and 50 one-thousandth, he reported, is much more likely to be the correct figure.

To make a comparison that is understandable, 150 one-thousandth are about the amount absorbed each year from natural background radiation — the radiation to which mankind has been exposed for countless generations.

Dr. Chamberlain's estimates were aimed primarily at the amount of radiation affecting the reproductive organs, this area being considered to be the most critical, as concerns radiation. The faint risk of these 25 to 50 one-thousandth of a rad is far outweighed by the benefits, in his opinion, and the rest of the body is unlikely to suffer any health damage at all.

It must also be pointed out that in general younger people (to whom the reproductive risk if any is important) get very little exposure to X-ray. Mostly it is for diagnostic X-rays which are brief.

Less Exposure

It is usually the older person, to whom possible reproductive harm is of little if any significance, who is exposed to the vastly heavier X-ray used for treatment of disease.

There's another important fact. The amount of X-ray exposure needed to make a picture is steadily declining. Machines are better shielded now. There is very little exposure except that required to have an image on the photographic film.

More sensitive film is being used, and in some cases other methods of image-intensification are possible. The net result is that less X-ray is needed. Dr. Hanson Blatz estimated that exposure to X-rays for medical purposes has been reduced 25 per cent in three years in New York.

My advice, therefore, is not to worry at all about whatever X-rays are needed for medical purposes. If you insist on worrying about something, then worry about what would happen if mankind ever permitted a nuclear war. That's really worth worrying about, and the exposure would be billions of times as great as all the medical X-rays for the next million years.

Radiation Per Race

Dear Dr. Molner: Has it been proved that one race is more susceptible to radiation than another? — M.S.

No.

Swallows Gum

Dear Dr. Molner: My 2½-year-old daughter loves chewing gum and prefers it to any candy. Is it harmful? She swallows it as soon as she chews it. She has about three small pieces a day—equal to one stick. Regular gum, not bubble gum. — MRS. D.W.

Swallowing it won't hurt her. I call your attention, however, to dentists who point out that gum has sugar in it, and continued presence of sugar, even in small quantities, contributes to tooth decay in some people at least. The greatest danger is inhaling the gum, causing it to lodge in the lung. For this reason I think it dangerous to give chewing gum to toddlers or young children.

Kaukauna Accepts Winter Recreation Registrations

KAUKAUNA — Registrations are being accepted by the recreation department and individual instructors for fall and winter recreation programs, according to James Gertz, recreation director.

Programs being offered include dancing, baton and art. Tap, ballet and acrobatic dance lessons are scheduled to get underway Oct. 6 with Mrs. Lloyd Ioehn and Mrs. Daniel Schommer as instructors. Lessons are offered for youngsters from 4-years of age through high school. Students will be arranged by age groups and registrations are being accepted at the recreation office.

Other Classes

Registrations for baton twirling gan, instructor. Enrollment in this class is limited since the practice area in the city hall does not permit handling large groups. Youngsters will be divided into age groups or be grouped according to ability. Both dance and baton calsses will be held on Saturdays.

Students interested in the art classes are to call Mrs. Roger Belling, instructor. These classes are scheduled to start Sept. 22 and youngsters will be divided by age groups. Students through high school age are being accepted and special times will be arranged by the instructor. Most of the classes will be on Saturdays although older groups may be required to attend after school hours during the week.
